Racial Comrades!

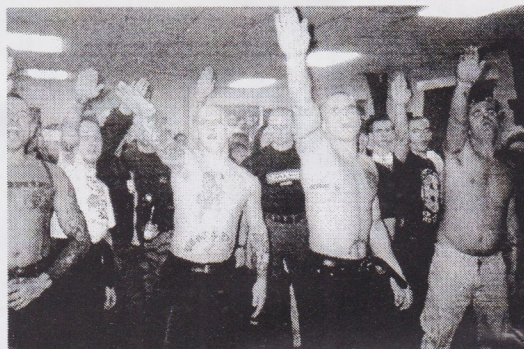

Here we are Issue 23. Back on schedule and going forward like never before, Issue 22 sold like wild fire, and sales figures at the I.S.D Memorial broke all records. Sales, contributions and interest are all at an all time high, every issue is beating the previous one, and this trend has continued for four issues now, lets keep it going. We now have a quality flagship magazine, like no other, one we are and justifiably, very proud off, but we can still do so much more, there are literally thousands upon thousands out there, who want but don't get Blood & Honour, so lets give it to them!

The 2001 Ian Stuart Memorial, as most know was awesome, we predicted it, and now we've done it, over 1000 comrades from around the globe, celebrating our fallen leader and mentor, attended the weekend show. The organisation and effort put in by all branches and B&H Divisions in Great Britain was superb, and our gratitude and thanks go out to the National Gig Organiser and his concert section, security and bands. Lastly but most importantly to all the heroes, from around the world who held activities in Ian's honour, and just as importantly to those who attended them. Every passing year we are surprised, by the amount and different locations now holding memorials. Ian would have been so proud.

Once again Blood & Honour bands played a prominent part in the American Hammerfest, hopefully building and cementing ties, unlike last year all the British had a successful trip. Ties with foreign comrades and organisations from all around the white world in fact, are becoming working relationships, in our common goal.

Domestically, new bands like Crusade, Battle Standard and Section 88, have all given our scene an influx of new talent and interest, the new enthusiasm seems to be pushing the old guard to higher levels as well. Since September the amount of concerts each month, has been excellent, and many more dates have already been booked with the National gig organiser, well into the next year.

Lastly and to finish on a sad note, the events of September 11th have led to our country being at war. A war like no others, the enemy and his supporters are literally rubbing shoulders with us every day, if current national tabloid polls are to be believed. Many Asians living in Britain have left our shores to fight for the Taliban, and have voiced their aim to kill British service men, as they see Britain as their enemy, many still here have also voiced that opinion. Lets hope the Government invokes interment camps for terrorists on our shores, and dishes out the same treatment to them as Nationalists receive. I very much doubt it though. Tony Blair's stance against terrorism as honourable as it is, still doesn't apply to the I.R.A. hydra and the many heads it has spawned, who are still bombing and terrorising as we speak.

Our thoughts and support go out to all the British Service men and women, but especially to the Blood & Honour boys, awaiting the ground offensive, good luck boys and may God be with you!

WHITELAW

Whitelaw - Who are we?

Whitelaw were formed in the summer of 1997. After the death of Ian Stuart in 1993 we decided to set up a band to try and revamp the Skinhead scene and give it a new lease of life. Other bands were splitting up and a lot of people who had always supported the Skinhead scene were growing tired of watching the same bands all the time. So that summer Benny and Baz met by chance at a friend's house and after a little chat decided to form a band. It was agreed that Benny's job would be on the vocals and Baz was going to be the drummer. The next job was to find a guitarist and a bassist. They soon found the ideal people to fit these rolls, a guy called Sisco for the guitar and a guy called Roly for the bass guitar. The band only had two more tasks to fulfil. That was to actually have a practice and find the appropriate name to which they would be known. After lots of ideas they came up with one that they thought would shock people straight away and one that was straight to the point in every way. Whitelaw, One word, One meaning, One goal.

Whitelaw -What's our aim?

The aim of Whitelaw is to promote the Skinhead music scene and try and have an impact upon its rejuvenation, restoring it to former glories of the past. In the early days in England there was a revolution of youth kicking out against society and its laws and rules. Skinheads and most importantly the Skinhead bands were in abundance in Britain. Things started to turn nasty on the scene when the paymasters of the music industry (the big fat bosses) started to dictate to bands about what they could say. Skinheads were having none of this so decided to dump the lot of them rather than become some little wipe up boy for a fat dictator of the music industry. Some of the bands in the Oi scene did conform to them and became cowardly shadows of what was to happen next. A few bands, which were tipped to become big names formed their own musical direction to what eventually we know of today as the White Power music scene. Whitelaw have been bred from this original crop being inspired by the early masters of what is now called Blood and Honour.

The aim is simple and the answer is all in the name.

What's the story?

After a busy first year playing anywhere we could we accumulated enough material to record a CD. 'Take The Salute' was the title of it, brought out on the bands own label, called "Rope Records" After the success of the debut CD the band continued to play tirelessly around Britain. But with extreme Pressures upon them two of the band members left for personal reasons and took their careers up with two other bands. Whitelaw though was not finished and two replacements were found to keep the band going strong. One was a guy called Terry Pistol a mad guitarist who was a devotee of the Sex Pistols, and then a guy called Doctor Savage. Another guy to join was a bloke called Tom. The band had a new lease of life and after about six months was back on the road again. Terry Pistol was helping write new material and put allot of work into the band but with his commitment to a Sex Pistols cover band it didn't work out, and he later left. So Whitelaw were now down to a four-piece band again but it didn't take anything away from them, because Tom came into a world of his own and made his guitar talk. But after playing two very successful gigs, one in Milan, Italy and one in Frankfurt, Germany Tom dropped a bombshell on the band and decided he wanted to leave the band to further his own musical career. Devastated the three remaining lads, who had put so much into the band were in two minds whether to pack it all in. But just when you think your chips are all cooked, two phone calls came, and two new guys came to the rescue. Steve who formally had played with Conquest and Paul from the Leeds camp of England. The year was now 2000 and Whitelaw was again reborn and ready to silence the critics.

Were coming for you!

At last Whitelaw have seemed to have found the right combination in its band members. A new CD in the pipeline and an engine rearing to go. After failing to hold on to band members previously the tight combination of work rest and play installed in each of them has made them gel together to become a fine upstanding and very popular band. 'Were Coming For You' the title of their new work is to be introduced this year and promises to create a storm on the Skinhead scene.

The emblem of the Noose?

A lot of folk ask us why we use the noose as our emblem for the band, the answer being it represents not only a form of justice, but if you look at our folk today they are all tied up with problems such as money worries, unemployment, political correctness, and the immigrant invasion and we seem to be all powerless to be able to do anything about it. So very early on the band adopted the noose for its emblem as a sign of hope that order will be restored to our countries and White Justice will prevail one day. "Take the noose from around your neck before you all hang yourselves. Leave it on and you are the enemy."

The Family

Along the way we have formed a lot of friends stretching right across the world, from Australia and America to Northern Ireland (Ulster) and Germany. We have picked up a following in fact an entire army wearing our T-shirts and promoting our name. We salute all the people who have believed in us and gave us endless support. You have to come and watch us first before you can become an additional part of our army, because you have to be baptised at the end of the gig when the band tell you "you've just been Whitelawed" this reference comes from football hooligans who left behind their calling cards after a fight.

Blood and Honour Rocks in the North

DESTINATION: Lancashire, England

DATE: 27.10.2001

LINE UP: Whitelaw and Bail Up

Blood and Honour Great Britain managed to strike a success by pulling off a great night in the Lancashire region. The gig marked the first of hopefully many gigs to come. Although the gig was not the most populated ever, it struck home as being a major boost for all who attended from the North. This area has long been ignored by a lot of people around Britain. But this night marked the achievement that this region is famous for. The greatest influence to us all has got to have been Ian Stuart and with him and Skrewdriver coming from this area originally it marked a long awaited wake up call for Lancashire and the rest of the North.

Whitelaw got into their set at about 9.00p.m. and everybody soon began to loosen up and enjoy the night. Opening up their set with Fetch The noose and playing some of their now familiar songs from their first c.d. Take The Salute, Whitelaw then took a break and Bail Up - a band from Australia got down to work with the help of Paul and Baz from Whitelaw. They kicked out some good numbers with an excellent cover of A.C.A.B. by the 4 Skins. This was a real treat for everyone there to see Bail Up as no one had expected them to be appearing. When Bail Up had finished their set a few more pints flowed and Whitelaw came back on to perform a very tight set treating the audience to a few of their favourites and playing some of their new material from there soon to be released c.d. We're Coming For You.

At the end of the night a few of the audience took hold of the mic and sang some of their old favourites from Skrewdriver. All had a successful night.

British Movement

THE BRITISH NATIONAL SOCIALIST MOVEMENT

BRITISH MOVEMENT - A Short History

Founded in the summer of 1968 by veteran NS activist Colin Jordan and a small group of close comrades. Colin Jordan was the Movement's National Chairman until his retirement in 1974, his position being taken over by the National Secretary of the period, Michael McLaughlin. The BM originally operated from Mr Jordan's home in Coventry until the National Chairmanship transferred to Mike McLaughlin and moved first to Bebington on Merseyside and later to offices in Shotton in North Wales. During the period 1977 to 1983 the BM saw its greatest levels of public activity and was at its highest profile in the public eye. It was also at this time that the BM saw its broadest membership base to date, with widespread appeal amongst the youth and a central core of activists in the Leader Guard. In late 1983 Mr McLaughlin stepped down from the Movement and closed the National offices in Shotton. However the hardcore activists and Leader Guard refused to let BM die off and salvaged the Movement, re-structuring and re-organising under the collective leadership of the "1984 Committee". From that point on British Movement has continued and operates under the structure set down in 1984.

About British Movement

The BM agenda is different to that of other Nationalist organisations in the UK, both in terms of policy and ideology. British Movement is a National Socialist organisation and operates on a system of networks, some overtly political, some community based, some informal, some covert. The original agenda of BM was to preserve and resurrect British National Socialism and to promote a National Socialist strategy within mainstream British National Politics. The British political situation has changed from the 1968 to 1984 period and BM has changed strategy; the continuation of British National Socialism remains a bed-rock, but now the main objective is the creation of a National Socialist counter-culture in Britain and a modern, NS alternative new-media with an active National Socialist organisation on the streets and in the community. British Movement has its eyes set on a long-term strategy, and does not at this time enter into the electoral process, because the Movement believes that it is pointless to take part in a "rigged game".

As a dedicated National Socialist political organisation, our Movement believes that only by following the simple truths of the "14 Words" can the White Race survive in an increasingly hostile world. "

"14 Words" - We must secure the existence for our people and a future for White children.

The aim and purpose of the British Movement is to create a mono-racial National Socialist state in Great Britain. However the British Movement is not so selfish and inward looking as to ignore the threat to all the White nations of the globe, especially the threat to the mainland of Europe by Third World immigration. As National Socialists we look towards solidarity with all genuine National Socialists and Racial Nationalists across the White World. British Movement supports the concept of "White Pride, World Wide".

The National Chairman of British Movement recently stated that, "If the Zionists are World-Wide, then the White racist movement must also be world-wide. To challenge the Zionist on equal terms, British Movement must work world-wide".

To this end British Movement seeks close collaboration with National Socialists and White racial political activists in all parts of Europe, Australia and New Zealand, South Africa, Canada, and North and South America. Setting aside National and Regional differences, the threat posed to the White race on a global scale could not be greater. If our peoples are to survive into the next century, we must all work together against the common political and racial enemies that threaten our collective existence. British Movement is keen to work with our racial kindred across the world to bring about the Victory we need to secure a future for our children's, children's children.

To our racial kindred across the world we say; if your organisation is dedicated to preserving the White Race; if your organisation is totally opposed to multi-racialism; if your organisation is totally opposed to Zionism; if you are sworn to fight communism and internationalism; if you are against global capitalism and "their" New World Order then "Your fight is our fight".

Contact our Website, E-mail our on-line service, and let us hear from you if you support our Cause, become part of our network, subscribe to our magazine Broadsword.

The fifty years will be the final battle for the continued existence of the White race, will you be part of the struggle?

National Socialism is the Organised Will of our Race.

Return To Camelot

ITALY 2001

On the weekend of the 29th of August to the 1st of September 1991 hundreds of European National Revolutionaries gathered near Bassano del Grappa in Italy, in what had been Communist partisan territory during the last months of WW2. This event was organised by the Veneto Fronte Skinheads and consisted of three days of debates, political lessons, speeches and most memorably a concert with Skrewdriver and Peggior Amico. Skrewdriver were so impressed by the organisation and atmosphere at this camp and concert that they recorded a song on the "Freedom, What Freedom?" album called 'Ritorno A Camelot' thanking the Italians and the VFS for the "Festival of Light".

On the 31st of August this year, exactly ten years after the original, the VFS organised another Camelot. People from all corners of Europe converged at a campsite not far from Treviso. A large group of us flew out on the Thursday and were met in Treviso by some Italian comrades. They took us to their local pub where we enjoyed their hospitality. Drinks were flowing and there was even an impromptu ballads session with Sisco playing. Classics like "The Snow Fell", "The Green Fields of France" and many more were sang by all present. Later on we were packed into cars and drove to the Camelot campsite at Riva D Oro, in Revine Lago, for meetings with even more British and Italian comrades.

The next day we got to see the extent of the organisation involved. VFS had organised a massive campsite on the edge of a lake, with two massive marquees, one a beer tent with seating for speeches and the other with a huge stage set up. Most of the day was spent relaxing and meeting old friends from all around Europe. Later on that night, after rain that would not be out of place in Britain, the bands started. On the Friday night we were entertained by Italian bands such as Ultima Frontera (Gorizia), Onda D'urto (Bologna) and the first appearance of Armco (Vicenza). The latter band features Caio ex of Peggior Amico singing. There was a great atmosphere present with people having a good time dancing around on the ground that was slowly turning to mud. I have no idea what time the band stopped playing at but there were about 700 people present.

Saturday saw even more people arrive. During the day many people went for a swim or made use of the pedal boats left lying around the shore. Some of the braver ones even made use of the diving boards. It was a very relaxed day with no bother from the gathered cops and no sign of the threatened red demonstration. There were also some speeches made through the day in both Italian and English, but I must admit that I missed these. Then at about 21.30 hours, Spanish band Odal took to the stage. This band were new to me but they impressed the crowd which now numbered about 1,500 people.

These were followed up by West London's Legion of St. George. They unleashed a collection of straight to the point classics from their first two CDs as well as new stuff from their soon to be released third CD. As always they played a good set. Konkwista88 played a collection of their well known tracks, a new backing musicians but still the same enthusiasm, much to the crowd's enjoyment.

It was then time for Italian favourites Gesta Bellica to do their bit for European unity. This is one band that never fail to get the people motivated. The dance area was getting more and more cut up with each track as people enjoyed themselves.

Then finally it was time for Warlord. It was good to see Warlord on a stage again. They treated the crowd to many of their well known favourites, along with a few Skrewdriver covers. Stefan from Noie Werte joined Warlord on stage for a version of Blood and Honour.

The night came to a close at about 3.00 am.

The next day there were still a lot of people at the camp site, and competitions such as the fire extinguished toss were taking place. Most people were sitting around for a final drink with friends old and new before making the long journeys home.

I would like to thank all the members of the VFS for the hospitality they showed and congratulate them for a job well done. Keep up the struggle. Never surrender!

BH EAST LONDON

Veneto Front Report

After the great success of Camelot we staged our "ISD Memorial concert" with three Italian bands (Injustice Side, Armco and Gesta Bellica). It was held close to Verona and went very well with a good crowd of 500. Two weeks later Armco were honoured to be invited to play the most important Memorial of them all, in Great Britain. This event finally showed the British scene at its best, and as being the heart of our Movement by putting Ian Stuart's teachings in action, with the solid concrete base they now have. Armco played some of the songs from their CD, the lyrics are explicit like "Agony of the nation" and "Capitol punishment", and serve as a warning to our enemies like the opening song "Be aware! We are many", classic skinhead topics like in "Revenge", "No pity", "Love and hate", "Street boy", etc. We ended the set with a couple of Peggior Amico numbers and "Johnny join the Klan" for the rockers who worked in our organization.

The VFS is very busy at the moment with some activities linked to the history and knowledge of the Fascist era, which the politicians are trying to ban and remove teaching and schoolbooks. It is important for the young people who are approaching our Movement and interested in this period to have access to such an important part of our beginning and history.

On 28th October (the anniversary of the March to Rome) VFS comrades were the honour guard at Duce's Crypt and hundreds of people went to visit it and pay their respects. This new "activity" is legal and official; and is to deter drunken idiots and fools intent on disrespectful activities and vandalism.

Some meetings with veterans (R.S.I.) of the 2nd W.W. have also been organized.

On the 4th November (Italian Remembrance Day) laurel wreaths were laid at the main monuments of our cities by local VFS sections with the usual moans and cries from the "democratic" authorities and media. Who cares...viva l'Italia!

Best greetings to our B&H comrades. VFS.

BAIL UP!

Blood and Honour Great Britain try's to bring you news of new bands that set up around the world. For a short time a couple of lads hailing from Australia have been visiting Britain and Europe. They are from a band called Bail Up! And we recently bumped into them, so we took the opportunity and asked them to fill us in on what they are all about.

1. We Know you are from Australia, what part and who are you?

BU!.. We come from the nation's capital Canberra which is a few hours drive south of Sydney. The band members are;

Damo on vocals and myself Rod on guitar as for the rest of the band we get help from our good friends in Ravenous.

2. Bail Up! What does it mean?

BU!.. The fraze Bail up! Was used by bush rangers in Australia, it was commonly used instead of stick em up or stand and deliver when they held up a stagecoach.

3. What are your influences in music?

BU!.. Well growing up in my early teens I was into all the early Oi and punk bands (cock sparra, cockney rejects, the biasness, blitz, GBH ECT. But Skrewdriver would have to be my biggest influence along with Brutal attack and Fortress.

4. What is it like where you live and in oz for gigs?

BU!.. Where we live there are not a lot of people involved in the movement and it makes it almost impossible to hold gigs. We tend to go to a lot of metal shows and have good relations with many folks there. But for our taste in gigs we almost always have to travel to Melbourne to play and attend gigs. There are at least 4-5 gigs a year with quite a good crowd turn out.

5. What gigs have you played up to now?

BU!.. We have played every gig since we formed over a year ago and have supported bands like Fortress and Ravenous. While we have been in Europe we played a small gig at the Hammerskins summer camp, Switzerland and here in the UK.

6. Any recordings in the pipeline?

BU!.. Yes we have two songs coming out on a sampler being produced by the Switzerland Hammerskins, and also a split CD with an English band called Battle Standard on Rampage records. Both CD's will hopefully be out round Xmas or early in the New Year.

7. What are your planes for the future?

BU!.. I don't think any thing will change. We will keep on writing new songs, hopefully there will be some good feed back on the recordings that we have done and we can do a full length CD. We will always play as many gigs as possible and maybe even come back to Europe in the future.

8. Where can we get in touch with the band and do you have a mail order list for merchandise?

BU!.. At the moment don't have any merchandise and I guess we are waiting to see if people like our music first. If people would like to contact us our e-mail addresses are

9. If you could have a wish granted then what would it be?

BU!.. To make it imposable for people in the movement to lie.

10. If you had to go and live on a desert island and you were only allowed to take one possession with you what would it be.

BU! My wife.

11. Any last words?

BU!.. Thanks for the opportunity to reach more people and I hope you all enjoy our music when and if you get a chance to hear it. Hail the HSN and support you local B&H.

Blood and Honour would like to thank Bail Up! For the interview and wish them success in the future.

BH Highlander SCOTLAND AWAKE!

“WELCOME TO SHI'ITEHILL ?”

For many decades now the British democratic political scene has been nothing more than a cesspool of career opportunism, nepotism and barely concealed manipulation by minority pressure groups, such as the clique at Woburn House or the sexual perverts and degenerate predators who the current new-labour government pack into un-elected positions of power in this country.

The official opposition consisting of the Liberace Democraps and Cohen-servitudes are no different. These half-men in suits and bull-dyke man-haters are as guilty of race -treason as the reactionary blue-rinse and “Two Jag” set are. Modern Democraps are like Hyenas - they may have slight differences and colouring but they are still all the fucking same!

Sadly but not unsurprisingly the White Genocide Manifesto that has been adopted by all Western governments is now in place at the devolved Scottish Parliament in Edinburgh. Laws promoting homosexuality and multi - racialism are now in place as are oppressive anti - white and anti - free - speech laws. The stench of treason and miscegenation likened only to the last days of Rome, is all pervasive and that corruption has completely filtered down to local government and council level. There can be no greater example of this than Glasgow District Council and it's plan to infiltrate*10,000 so called ‘Asylum - Seekers’ into Glasgow, putting enormous strain on the already meagre resources in the housing schooling and health areas.

The traitors in power are trying to con the Glasgow people that we will be benefiting to the sum of £100 million for taking these migrants in but manifestly refuse to accept that it is already our own British tax payers money that they will give us back and that all the fitted Kitchens, TV's, Suits and Computers are bought and paid for by us Britons.

Laying aside the enormous financial swindle, the threat to the racial gene pool is all too obvious. Racial renegades in the areas are already putting on carnivals, dances and promoting multi-kulti events to encourage race mixing (read white murder) and the leftist rabble of the Scottish Socialists, AFA and Anal are trying to manipulate & motivate the migrants. When a large group of Asylum-Seekers tried to storm the Glasgow City Chambers prominent leftist agitators were at the forefront pushing them on. At the same demo three BNP observers (including this author) were immediately lifted by the police when we got too close to the demo. We were freed shortly after but the leftists and Asylum-Seekers were treated with kid gloves.

Thankfully in some areas of Glasgow particularly in Sighthill the traitors and race mixers have not had things all their way. There has been something of a popular up-rising in response to the continued flood of Asylum types in that area and local whites sick of seeing council vans and buses sneaking in at 5 and 6 in the morning to off load their human cargoes or a new delivery of plush furnishings are now openly vocal & downright hostile to these Economic Migrants. One Kurd has already been killed, 2 Palestinians beaten senseless, stabbings & other physical attacks on the Asylum-Seekers.

Hysterical newspapers hacks and commie agitators have tried to lay the blame for such attacks at the feet of white racists or even the BNP which is engaged in a “Save our Sighthill” campaign but the true responsibility lies firmly with the multi-culturalists, political whores and anti-white bigots who would destroy Mother Natures greatest achievement! 14 WORDS! Blood & Honour Ukraine concert Honor, Sopkyra Peruna, Whites Load, Nachtigall, 27.10.01 in Kyiv.

The day we all had been waiting for was finally here, October 27th! Only now, can we reveal how difficult it was to organise this concert!!! The SSU (Security Service of Ukraine, former KGB). pursued and monitored our every move, and we had to book 20 venues after continuous cancellations. The final hall, charged a ridiculous amount for hire of its use and the equipment we needed, but we had no choice but to agree, as it was the day before the concert! But we made it! For the first time in the history of the CIS (Commonwealth of the Independent States) a radical Western band was going to play on our soil.

We started collecting foreign gig goers on the Friday before the gig, and that evening held a great social for all. On the Saturday, we took all our visitors on a sight seeing trip of Kyiv. Our Polish comrades, thoroughly enjoyed the trip, but our Russian friends had drunk a little too much the previous night and were suffering from hang overs. Because of this, we had to make many unplanned stops for our Russian comrades, in order to keep the mini bus clean! (It was all part of a fun day) Everywhere in our city, were groups of skinheads and activists waiting for the concert in the evening?

The evening finally came and the band we had waited to see took the stage! "HONOR"! The band sounded better live than on their recordings! "Honor" played songs from all their years together, many in different formats. For their two most popular songs - "National Socialism" and "The Last Drakkar", B&H leader Olexandra, took the stage and sang with the band. It was impossible to get near the stage with the entire front dancing and going mad. Everywhere you looked people from all the different countries sang along as one. By the end of their performance, the Russian comrades providing security, were too exhausted to continue, and retreated to the bar, to drink a lot of well earned beer!"Honor" - great people and one of the best ever bands!

The second band "Sopkyra Peruna" took the stage. They played a set of songs, from both their cd's, and also some new songs sung in English. But then the drummer's sticks broke, but the band had played extremely well, and many think this band will be one of the best bands in the Ukraine. "

"Whites Load" were the third band to play, every time they play they get better, and always surprise us with new material. During their performance a drunken girl fan climbed on stage and embraced the singers legs! As she would not let go and seemed to fall asleep the singer, not wanting to hurt her had to continue singing, playing guitar and moving while dragging her around, and he kept a straight face! Apart from this hysterical moment the set went perfectly.

The last band of the night was "Nachtigall" from Lviv. The band has just reformed, and it was their first performance for some time. The band played all their old songs, as they haven't any new material yet. I think they will be good again once they've played a few more shows.

"Honor" left Kyiv on the 29 of October, and we will all miss them; we wish them well and hope they return soon.

Olexandra.

I was lucky enough to hear you play in Germany a few weeks ago and would like to welcome you to B & H and find out a few things about your band.

First of all what is the line up of your band?

Marco on Guitar/keyboards and vocal

Maurice on Bass

Sven on Drums

When did the band form and have you played any gigs abroad and do you have any planned?

I started the band in 1991/92, however it now has a completely different line up. The original band members weren't reliable and because we didn't practice I ended up playing many ballads, but Sleipnir got publicity through these gigs. I have released a CD with just ballads. We have had the current line up since 1997. It was very hard to keep the band going because I was in the Army at the time. We should have had a gig in Croatia, but the concert was forbidden. Much thanks to our comrades in Zagreb once again. We also would also like to play abroad.

Where do you all come from and how did you get to know each other?

We all come from Bielefeld. I have known Maurice since 1993. I met him at a ballad evening. We met Sven through other comrades. He lives a little was from us. Maurice played the guitar before he joined Sleipnir and Sven only a little drums but we have practised a lot and sound good.

Sleipnir - what does it mean and why did you choose this name?

The name has its origins in the Nordic God world. Sleipnir is Odin's horse. Odin rode on Slepinir by the world of Asgard and Valhalla. For us this name stands for strength and is fortifying. We must be strong in this hard time. We must stick together.

Who influences your music and why?

Many different music directions influence our style. We prefer very different styles. Maurice is influenced by the old styles. Sven is much influenced by the Black Metal. I have always liked different styles. I hear hardcore, Metal, RAC. It always depends on my atmosphere. We also write very different lyrics.

Could you tell us a bit about what CDs you have released and if there are any more on the way?

We have one CD of ballads. We have also made a demo CD in the RAC style. Some ballads for various samplers. I am resuming one for a rock ballads CD at the moment. Our studio album shall finally follow!

B & H is banned in Germany, how has this affected the scene and are there still gigs?

It has influenced the scene negatively. There were many house searches and arrests. It has got very hard to play concerts in Germany. The Police suspect B & H behind every gig and so many gigs are very small and secret. The scene has broken from each other at the moment because of all organisations being forbidden. People are smuggled into the scene by the state everywhere, the informers don't sleep. Sleipnir is also affected by it.

How can people get in touch with you, do you have a P O Box or a web page?

We have a Web site www.sleipnir.d4f.net or www.sleipnir.2xt.de. It is also possible to receive e-mails at these addresses. Our P O Box was discontinued.

Could you give us your top 10 favourite songs?

Free my land - Skrewdriver, Justice - Berserker, Ocean of Warriors - Dissident, Tales of Glory - Brutal Attack
Fields of Destruction - Squadron, Black September - BFG,
Bountiful life - Before God, European Skinhead Army - No Remorse
Wounded Man - Brutal Attack, Pride and Purity - Nemesis, And many, many, more.....

Any closing comments?

I say thank you for the interest in Sleipnir. Keep the faith! 14 Words

German British Friendship Birthday Party

Bunde - 2001

We set off from East London early Friday morning heading for Hamburg. Some of our good comrades from Bunde met us at the airport, we had a three-hour drive back to Bunde and met up with some more comrades and then set off for an afternoon drinking and talking.

Michael and his comrades spent all day Friday re-organising the party due to Police oppression. The Police stopped the first venue and so a second had to be found quickly. Many phone calls were made and eventually they came up trumps. After a hard day we spent a quiet evening in the bar.

Saturday morning we were taken to visit some places of historic interest. Our first stop was a nearby town where there stands a bronze German soldier and his wife and child, this monument is for the German soldiers who lost their lives in the war. It was good to see that there was no commie graffiti on it. The second stop was the monument to Arminius The Great whose victory over the Romans not only saved Germania but also the British Isles from being romanized like Gaul and Spain. The next stop was, Wewelsburg the castle used by the SS. There is only a few reminders from the SS, down in the basement, which was the meeting room for the SS, there is a large swastika built into the ceiling, which is hollow and the sun shines through down onto the floor. Outside there is a Sentry box made out of stone with SS runes carved into it but there have been some attempts by the Government to remove this but you can still see it. Next we headed off for lunch at a restaurant, which was used by the SS, there are still carvings in the seats of totenkopfs and swastikas. Downstairs there is a room that the Hitler Youth used to hold regular meetings in. It was very good to see some of the history that is hard to find in Germany.

Next we set off to the party. The Police told us that the party could only begin when there were no skinheads on the streets or in the town. We arrived at the party at about 9pm, most people were there by then - we were surprised there was about 200 - 250 people from many parts of Germany. There is a tradition in Germany that on your 30th birthday if you are not married you have to sweep the floor clean with a broom with the handle cut into sections joined with chain links, to much applause and laughter. After this Michael made a speech thanking everybody for coming and asking everybody to enjoy themselves and have a trouble free night. Then the first band, Oidoxie, took the stage and got the crowd warmed up and ready for more. Next up was Nordfront, who got into a good heavy set and had half the place dancing. By this time it was about 12 midnight normally time to go home but not in Germany, the third band took the stage, which I was looking forward to seeing. I had met these guys in England, they are good blokes, the band was called Sleipnir. I have their CD, which is a very good mix, I wasn't disappointed. They sang in both German and English and also played some classic Skrewdriver songs that went down a storm with the crowd an excellent band. Watch out for them, they could be playing in a town near you soon. The evening went without a hitch, no Police intervention; everybody enjoyed themselves, a great success.

We would like to thank all the people from Bunde for their hospitality.

The Winter War, Finland's Brave Fight Against the Red Beast and the British Volunteers

On the 30th of November 1939 Finland was attacked all along her eastern border by around half a million soviet troops. Their plan was simple, to bomb Helsinki into defeat and drive into Helsinki, sweeping aside any resistance they were to come across, they hoped to achieve this within a few weeks.

Finland who had gained her independence from the rule of Russia in 1917, knew that total defeat would mean the loss of independence and return to the rule of Russia. In the coming weeks the Finnish forces, showed they were prepared to fight to the very last man to stop this from happening.

An army of 160,000 was raised, and headed east to meet the invaders head on. The fighting was long and harsh in the coldest winter of that century, but the brave Finns stood their ground fighting back wave after wave of soviet attacks, stopping the soviets in their tracks. The soviets took heavy losses; on December the 12th two divisions were utterly destroyed. On the 28th December the 44th division was ambushed and destroyed. In the first part of the war the soviets lost 27,000 men against Finnish losses of 2,700. The soviets plan was now left in tatters on the battlefield. In early 1940 the soviets deployed 45 divisions and broke the Finnish lines. The snow which was Finland's greatest advantage was starting to melt and the soviets started to advance. The Finnish government were forced to start peace talks with the soviets.

On the 13th of March 1940 after 109 days of fighting a peace deal was signed. Finland lost Viipuri and Salla districts and a part of Lapland, a total of 10% per cent of her land, this included 420,000 acres of her land. In the fighting Finland lost 25,000 men the Soviets 100,000 men. Russia fell short of its plan to take Finland. Finland still had control of her government and in many ways Finland was not the defeated army.

Finland was not alone in her struggle. Volunteers came from all over Europe and beyond to help Finland battle Communism. These volunteers can be broken down into two separate groups.

The first group consisted of volunteers from other Nordic nations, around 1010 came from Denmark, 695 from Norway and the largest group, around 8260 from Sweden. Only the Swedes made it to the front line, they were already armed and trained for winter combat, and it was just a matter of time for these experienced troops to make it to eastern Finland.

This was not the first time Sweden had helped Finland, in 1918 Finland was involved in a civil war between the white nationalists and the red communists, the volunteers from Sweden assisted the white nationalists to victory. Sweden had helped to stop communism in Scandinavia and was willing to do the same again.

The other Nordic volunteers arrived too late, many were ill equipped and most did not make it out of the training camp, many returned to their homelands soon after. It is not known if these volunteers volunteered for service in the Waffen SS in the years to come. There was also, around 372 American Finns who headed for Finland, they did make it to Finland but its not known if they saw any action.

Those who volunteered for service feared the presence of communist Russia in Scandinavia. If Russia had been victorious in Finland, there was a fear that they would not stop and would continue their barbaric drive into Scandinavia. Sweden's neutral status would become irrelevant and the rest of Scandinavia would be crushed under the might of the red beast.

What was not known at that period of time was that a month after the winter war had ended. Denmark and Norway would be occupied by German forces. If Finland had been under the rule of Russia in the latter stages of the war in 1945, Russia may have tried to "liberate" these nations and history has shown what happened when Russia 'LIBERATED' Eastern Europe and the Baltic nations.

The second group of volunteers formed under the name of OSASTO SISU, the translation of OSASTO-department SISU can be called Finland's national word it represents the determination of the Finnish people, it has no English counterpart, but the nearest English word is guts so Osasto-department sisu-guts.

This group consisted of three volunteers of unknown nationality, 346 Hungarians and there were also British volunteers, these were the organizers of the Osasto SisU. In 1939 8500 British citizens had volunteered for service, out of these only 227 managed to make it to Finland. The correct date of when the first troops arrived in Finland is unknown, but on the 4th of March there were 5 British citizens in the Lapua training camp, on the 13th of March eight more had arrived and the last batch of 145 men arrived on March the 16th 1940. It is not known when and where the others arrived, both the British and Hungarians unfortunately got there too late and also lacked vital training in extreme winter warfare. One point of interest is that the training camp was in Lapua a town east of the coastal town of Vaasa on the west side of Finland. Lapua was the birthplace of the Lapua movement an anti communist group which organized the peasant march in 1930 when 12,000 people from all over Finland, marched into Helsinki and forced the Government in Helsinki to ban Communism!

The British volunteers were welcome volunteers in the fight against the red beast, but unfortunately were lacking in all the necessary skills, but the will and honour of these brave men had made them take the journey to take up arms with their Finnish brothers. After the winter war some tried to return to Britain, 60 of them headed for Oslo right at the same time as the German forces, a dozen of whom were taken prisoner, the rest travelled to Sweden. Another group tried to make it to Norway through Ravanieimi in the north of Finland, but they were stopped by the Finns who feared they would fall into the hands of the Germans. Others travelled with Swedish passports, but they ended up in German prison camps. Some stayed in Finland and worked as loggers, farm workers, English teachers and one even became a golf pro at the Helsinki golf club and another as a member of the British embassy in Helsinki. There were also a few who simply disappeared.

A few nations gave gifts to help Finland in their heroic struggle, the union of South Africa sent 25 Gloster Gladiator aircraft, Sweden gave 12 aircraft that were piloted by Swedish Volunteers, and from Denmark 2 fighter pilots who were sadly killed.

The attack by Soviet forces on Finland was roundly condemned by many nations in Europe, many feared not only the end of independent Finland, but also the treatment the Finnish people would receive if they were to come under the rule of Russia. Hopefully the support Europe and all the valiant volunteers gave helped give the heroic Finns a moral lift, knowing that they were not alone and many were willing to help.

The History and Times of

PATRIA

Patria formed back in 1997 and very soon released their debut demo tape "La voz de Espa a", a cover of Skrewdriver's classic "The voice of Britain". That tape had some other songs: Bandera sagrada (Holy flag), Sangre y honor (Blood and honour) and Vieja Europa (Old Europe). The style was Oi! with strong reactionary lyrics and topics about our race.

Our first gig was in Sabadell (Barcelona), playing with the band Legion Negra from Valencia. It was a great debut concert, even though there were some problems that finished with a mass riot with guns and fights everywhere. The local press and media reported these incidents with their usual lies and discrepancies!

After some line up changes, the band stopped playing until the end of 1998, when David, the founder member welcomed the new singer Titin from Legion Negra and Dani (Tormenta) playing guitar.

With the new members the band sounded much more aggressive and they recorded a successful 4 track demo in a professional studio. The organisation Sonido Anti Sistema helped the band with two gigs in Valencia, playing with the local band Iberos Saiti. This is when Patria really started with their musical war campaign!

The first c.d. was recorded in 1998 in Barcelona and produced by the band, but it took 2 years to see the light of day, due to the explicit content of the lyrics. No distributor would release it and finally it was released by the band themselves in a limited edition of 500 copies with the help of the Spanish Blood & Honour division. It was called "Acci n Obrera Skinheads" (Working Class Skinhead Action). Ten tracks of hard Oi! containing the tracks Soldados Patriotas (Patriot Soldiers), Imperio Espa ol (Spanish Empire), Orgullo Europeo (European Pride) and the Legion 88 version Terrorismo de Estado.

Hammerskins Espa a then organised a concert in Madrid to celebrate the National Spanish Day, and Patria played with Batall n de Castigo and Toletum. In November Patria played again in Madrid with the same bands and Torquemada 1488, Reconquista, Centuria Hispanica and Iberos Saiti, organised again by Hammerskins.

In December Patria played outside of Spain for first time. It was a concert in Switzerland with the bands Oidoxie and Torquemada 1488. Once again the local media talked about the terrible nazis, in articles of more lies and slander.

In January year 2000, Patria played Madrid with well-known Italian favourites Gesta Bellica, Mistreat of Finland, and Spanish band Toletum, who are very good comrades of ours.

The band then returned to Valencia after a long time away for a gig with the bands Sangre Joven and Toletum, and the English legends Warlord. All who attended enjoyed another excellent example of comradeship and a well-organised event by Blood & Honour Spain.

Three months later we played in the city of Zaragoza with the German band Faustrecht. The concert was great, but unfortunately it finished again with comrades fighting each other.

After all this, Patria decided to take a well earned break, and to dedicate more time to the other members' projects 14 Palabras and Tormenta. These two projects have now recorded their c.d.s on Rata-ta-ta records, but this is another story...

Nowadays the band is working on a new web site, the re release of the debut c.d. with a new cover, and writing songs for a future c.d.

The Harley Column

Methadone & Health

Mis-use of recreational drugs for so called pleasure is a thriving business. All N.S. comrades rightly condemn the inadequate individuals that turn to oral and intravenous happy trips. I do though wonder at times where the line is drawn when on the one hand I see gross and persistent abuse of strong liquor, which seems not to be condemned. Then the total intolerance shown to smokers of cannabis, which I believe to be non-addictive, and completely harmless. This not being the reality, with tobacco products.

Prescription drugs are available from dispensaries easily, and rightly so for treatment purposes. There is always a BUT. Government sanctioned policy seems to allow the Heroin substitute Methadone to be given out easily. Its killing people! Following the death of an ex girlfriend some months ago from a Methadone overdose, linked with alcohol consumption, I think this: It would be extremely wise of us to not leave drinks unattended in pubs, especially in the presence of drug addicts and juvenile pranksters. This pointless death in Northants last Christmas left young children with no mother. All the more poignant because it aint the only recent methadone overdose of a young woman at one time involved with Blood & Honour, again leaving small children with no mother in Northants.

This drug Methadone, government sponsored death, is dangerous, why no outcry? Is methadone more lethal than the heroin it is meant to replace?

Blockbuster Carnage Gets Real!

No long invective here about the World Trade Centre disaster. With the prosecution of a crusade against Islamic crackpots in Afghanistan, we have retribution in progress.

The cliché goes "easier to prevent disease than to treat the symptoms". The atrocities in the U.S. were not aimed solely to murder the unfortunate Aryan and other victims. It was targeted at the symbol that personified the Zionist controlled purveyors of disgraceful foreign policy.

The U.S. Govt, along with its number one puppet, Blair must stop the bombing and sanctions on the Iraqi people. Saddam thought he had a green light 10 years back to re-incorporate its breakaway province of Kuwait. He was wrong.

Would extreme puritanical Islam be so virulent if the Israeli state terror machine hadn't existed? Torture on the statute book, vicious occupying troops on stolen Palestinian land, disregard for U.N. resolutions and the bombing of U.N. posts, murder of refugees, the list goes on. Vast refugee camps in surrounding countries established in 1948. This, after ruthless Irgun and Stern gangsters murdered British Mandate officials and formed the illegal Israeli state. Populated mainly by immigrants who were supposed to have actually perished in the holohoax.

Unless there is a just settlement in Palestine and Iraq, the Islamic militants will be galvanised by injustice and hate. Bombing rocks and rubble in Afghanistan will serve only to stir the ants' nest.

Hungary Still Resists

The state police have since Feb 13 1999 applied great pressure to disrupt and disperse legitimate resistance to its unjust system, where yet again the old story of control of an Aryan nation by others, is a fact of life. Back on Feb 13', 99 the media circus garulled when again hundreds of Nazi Skinheads marched through the old fortress in Budapest and saluted the Hungarian Waffen SS. The headlines about that nights gig reverberated for months after (I was there).

Yeah, we all know that music and concerts wont overthrow the treacherous system. It must though, be part of a combined struggle for the hearts and minds of the young people. Why else would the police and political agents spend so much time interfering with musicians and their audiences?

Despite the banning of premiere Blood & Honour band Archivum, the scene in Hungary has continued. In typical bashful style, the members of Archivum always pronounce that "Verszerzodes" (Bonded by Blood) as their choice as Hungary's number 1 band. For sure once the latter again has a reliable line-up, the bands here will go forward. Inspiring Blood & Honour patriots to cement a strong and vibrant movement to further the flames for eventual final victory.

There is at present two B&H factions in the Hungary. At a "unity" meeting held in Budapest on 27 Oct 2001, the self styled leader of one faction, "Miki" announced that the other faction refused to attend. In fact they had never been invited!

The only obstacle to unity in Hungary is the presence of the said "Miki". Allegations persist about collusion with the authorities and financial wrongdoing. The members of Archivum and comrades have made many strong friendships in Blood & Honour, especially in Great Britain. The tireless effort to propagate the cause of right, justice and racial survival, both in Hungary and across borders will go on. Remkoppintok (Copy Cats) cover band and Titkolt Ellenallas (Secret Resistance) and Csinovnyik Halala (Punk) are up and gigging, as were Max Resist and Intimidation One (from the U.S.A.) on 29th Sept at the Olympia in Budapest.

Political partys here have to be registered. The Hungarian Life and Justice Party got 5 and a half per cent last election and are looking at a probable 10-15% next spring in Parliamentary elections. The ruling gypsy led centrist party and main opposition communists are running scared.

The M.N.A. (Hungarian National Frontline) is in terminal decline. The ageing leader Gyorkos has spent 2 years purging Odinists, Atheists and Skinheads!

Sadly the N.S.H. (National Socialist Network) has radiated into smaller clichés with no central authority.

The Hungarian National Socialist scene is evolving. Watch this column.

Colin Jordan

Still not off the hook! Since the police raid, on 4 Aug 1988. Mr Jordan has been to numerous hearings and is alas awaiting yet another preliminary, last time the judge got ill and the case is up again on 23 Nov at Leeds Crown Court.

Ian Stuart Memorial

Concert England 2001

The year 2000 saw over 800 comrades, attend the now world famous Ian Stuart Memorial, the concert was the biggest on British shores since Ian's sad demise, and was the surest sign yet Blood & Honour was once again the most prominent National Socialist musical resistance movement, certainly in Great Britain more than likely in the white world, B&H had come through a period of inner turmoil stronger and more organised than ever before in its history. But if anyone thought the organisation and sheer scale of the 2000 concert was huge, the year 2001 was already earmarked to be a ground breaking one, an event unsurpassed in the history of Blood & Honour!

As concerts and activities have continued to grow it was always known sooner or later we would hit the landmark 1000, in attendance, it was envisaged we would hit this target at the 2000 concert, (the I.S.D. memorial is always our biggest event), we were only 200 short, and with the success of this concert ringing around the entire world, we had a good idea in 2001 we could smash all records.

Our section in charge of concert scheduling and organising always shares responsibility with the organising of the I.S.D. concert, it is now too much for one lone Division to undertake. The plans for the year 2001 concert were well underway by the beginning of the year, two venues of outstanding quality were booked, in each case only one individual who duly booked the venue knew its location, the National Gig Organiser was aware of both areas but not the exact location, with so much at stake, and with fore knowledge, comrades from around the entire world were coming no risks could afford to be taken.

Nearer the set date of October 6th, the better of the two locations were chosen, by means of facilities, size capabilities and most importantly we needed a location where the police were given no reason to interfere i.e. away from the general public, whether people complain or not we couldn't give the police any pretext to hide behind if they decided to attack the concert, as they have before, an ensuing riot and the likelihood of comrades being imprisoned was one we would take all precautions against.

The date and location was set. It was decided this year with the make up of the crowd, and as a thank you to our German comrades for their continued support to include two German bands, and as it turned out two of the most prominent in the mighty German scene, Noie Werte and Ultima Ratio. With the police in Germany still following there aggressive 'smash all concerts' policy at any cost, it was also a way of showing unity with our German brothers and telling the German State, the concerts will continue no matter what or where.

The Italian band Armco was also chosen to play the memorial, for two reasons historically Armco consists of members of the legendary band Peggior Amico, who had as we all know big links with Skrewdriver and also because the Italians have also been one of our staunchest allies through good and bad times.

Lastly to show the new spirit of unity and the working relationship now evolving between Britain and the U.S.A. two American bands were booked to play Max Resist and Intimidation One, with all the British bands now regularly playing the bigger American shows it was our turn to host two of America's finest. Unfortunately, although this fact was kept secret to most, both bands failed at the last hurdle to enter our country, and along with some German comrades they had their passports confiscated at a French port on the morning of the sixth. As we always knew this was a likelihood, it was never advertised these bands were set to play.

The British bands Eye of Odin, Whitelaw, Legion of St George, Bulldog Breed and Celtic Warrior were all chosen to have the honour of playing the concert.

The week before the concert all was set, the only two setbacks were minor. The police visited Stigger and drilled him for the location; saying if he gave it they would help ensure the concert went ahead safely.....yeah sure! And secondly in another reminder that the police operation called c18 now removed from our streets still infests the Internet, many comrades from around the globe began emailing the official Blood & Honour site asking if it was true that the gig had been re scheduled to the 13th October, as they had been told on the Internet. Comrades from Germany actually changed there travelling dates because of this, and BH Vinland luckily never fell to this foul play because of the speed of Internet communications. Posts and adverts were placed to ensure no comrades came on the wrong date, when there wasn't even a gig in this country! The perpetrators of this deed were uncovered, the fact they would rather see fellow National Socialists make a wasted journey, than attend a Blood & Honour concert in memory of Ian Stuart is beyond scorn! And worthy of the State dirty tricks Department.

From the Thursday onwards legions of foreign comrades, from every corner of the world began descending upon our shores, provisions by different Divisions all around the country were in place to look after our fellow soldiers, with sleeping accommodation and travelling. One plane from Germany had 34 skinheads on it alone. One comrade in the Southern Division had 28 people stay in his house, with five different languages! Surely the record so far! Customs and Immigration stopped nearly everyone, but to there credit let all through to this legal Memorial, except nine Czech comrades and the aforesaid Americans. But the effort by everyone in looking after our friends was magnificent, and another pointer to the superb organisation and team work about B&H now.

On the evening of the fifth comrades, and organisers were picked up and taken to the location of the event, a party was held that night, but most importantly the advance guard set everything into place, and with a large contingent already there it was improbable the concert could now be stopped.

At eleven o'clock on the morning of the sixth, Divisional heads and Area organisers were telephoned with the location, they in turn rang all there staff to let everyone know where we were going. The first call had just been finished, when the police arrived, at 11.15! A phone tap? Big Brother is certainly watching us. The police spoke with a B&H representative, and after making sure everything was above board, told us the concert was fine and everything could go along as planned.

The venue was a holiday camp, situated on the South East coast; it was on the sea front, with a massive campsite and chalets. Everything was catered for, washing facilities, showers, a large hall for those who wished to sleep inside and sleeping bags were provided, a load of tents were also already in place for those who wanted to use them, and hadn't brought there own. A main complex building was the gig venue, a massive hall with stage and Divisional banners from every nation in the world festooned around the walls, adjacent to the hall was a large bar area with long bar and seating area. A short way from the main building a 2000 people marquee had been erected, inside was literally loads and loads of stalls, selling merchandise from all around the world, t shirts, cds etc and an eating area, which served food all day until midnight, and great food as well.

The site was heaving, tents were erected everywhere along with camper vans and everywhere you looked skinheads were enjoying themselves, on the horizon skinhead silhouettes could be seen on the beach! Flags of every nationality flew. What an event!

At six o'clock, the atmosphere was electric, everyone was just so glad they had made it, sad news had filtered through 22 German comrades and members of a prominent band all who were due at the gig, had been raided and arrested that day. Sad news but a continual risk we all run in the fight for our people. Our thoughts were with them.

Eye of Odin, took the stage, the heavy, heavy monster sound from South East London. Odin's chosen, let rip into what was definitely a very well rehearsed set, they were fantastic. Song after song, lead singer and original B&H stalwart Micky gave the kind of show, we now expect of him, summoning the mighty god Odin himself. The movement and sound of songs like Eye of Odin, War Machine, Reign I Forever just started the evening off with an almighty high, and with what is known as an all time classic, Eye of Odin played the Ian Stuart classic The Lions Roar in their all powerful style, a great rendition with so much respect for our founder, everyone went potty, always a hard job starting the night, but these boys did it so well, all the other bands had a hard act to follow.

An hour later and Italian band Armco took the stage, English comrades knew that this band had a good pedigree in arising from the ashes of Peggior Amico, and some had been lucky enough to witness them play on home soil at the 'Return To Camelot' gig, a few weeks earlier. They produced a fantastic set of Italian Oi! And were a great joy to watch, the singer had a real stage presence, and was a real surprise package! We think he had borrowed one of the Legions 'Ben Sherman's', but with Simon to come we knew, England would once again fly the flag for loud shirts!

Ultima Ratio, and our first taste from the boys from the Fatherland, some of us have been privileged to see Ultima Ratio play London a couple of years back, and some are even luckier to own their debut cd Willkommen in Deutschland, a quality cd and me thinks cd of the year when it was released. A fantastic band who played a thoroughly professional set, the German contingent left it, and despite the language barrier the rest of the audience couldn't fail to appreciate the quality of these boys.

Whitelaw, from the Midlands area of Britain. Are known to all, with one cd under their belts, and another due out, this band always gives 100% and never let you down, and tonight was no exception. The boys played for nearly an hour and a half, faultless in every department and only stopped for the most poignant moment of the night.

As with what has almost become a tradition each year at the Memorial, lead singer Benny half way through the set, called for the one minutes silence to think about Ian and to pay our respects, this year when it was called many comrades took the stage, and unfurled flags representing every country in attendance and most prominently the Blood flag was unfurled. The hall was a blinding wall of flashes as all the flags flew at half mast, then over 1000 people went deathly silent for the minutes duration, on completion Benny led the salute the flags were all raised to their full and rightful glory and the full compliment of the venue joined as one with the victory salute, the hall's walls literally bowed at the volume, we all now know what it must have been like at Nuremberg in the Thirties. Whitelaw continued with Take the Salute as the hall went ballistic, and finished their set with old and new. A solid performance, a memorable occasion, a magnificent display.

Bulldog Breed and front man Jonsey took centre stage, a band so loved by many, who always play traditional Oi! Every song is a sing along, and everyone knows your always going to get a load of Oi! Covers thrown in to satisfy everyone's taste, and we weren't let down, probably the most powerful set I've personally seen by these boys since their start, it was plain to see on the night every band had practised so hard for this memorial, and we all benefited because of it. Every song from both Bulldog cds was played, and new material from their new split, it was a treat. Most notable was the Hammerskin song played for the Hammerskins who attended, and hopefully made them feel at home within the Blood & Honour crowd, everyone enjoyed a great performance from a great band.

Legion of St George, what can we say, the boys were on fire, and as Bulldog Breed had just played a blinding set of skinhead Oi! Who better, than West London's finest sons, to take the mantle, and continue hitting us with skinhead classics! The minute they started with Legion, the whole hall continued singing along, the Howling quickly followed and as with all this bands sets, every song is at a million miles an hour, Gary never stopped smiling or moving and the fun aspect of this band is always contagious, the fact the band downed a bottle of Schnapps while they were playing probably accounted for a lot of the smiling! But their playing was spot on; once again the highlight of the set in my eyes was In the Footsteps of Heroes, played twice once during and once as the encore, dedicated to everyone there it was the perfect tribute, a song that really is a fantastic tribute to Ian and all of us who have followed in his footsteps. As a sad footnote it must be said Simon's all black shirt, was a bit of a let down!

Noie Werte led by Steffen, are one if not the most professional bands on the European circuit, going back many years with Skrewdriver, and still leading the way today. I have been privileged to see them on three occasions now, and this was the second in England and at the I.S.D. Memorial, they were awesome last time, and tonight they were no different. Their last cd 'Am Puls der Zeit' is out of this world, and I was overjoyed to hear them play the song of the same name, which is my favourite, every song they played was with Germanic precision and the large German contingent led the way in the dancing and singing, the enthusiasm for them, was just contagious, and no matter what nationality you are or what language you speak, you just cant fail to appreciate the class of this act. All hail the Fatherland!

Celtic Warrior took the stage and although it was near on one o'clock everyone was gagging for more, and the Welsh boys were sure to dish up a treat to top the evenings live entertainment off. The set started off like a dream with Let the Battle Begin and Invader, the front was heaving and everyone was singing along, but after only five songs tragedy struck and sadly Billy lost his voice, dejectedly he left the stage, he later put his absent voice down to too much partying all week with foreign guests, but all was not lost, not when you have Lyndon and Brad in your band who can both more than hold their own in the singing department. It's a Welsh thing! They both took turns in treating us to Celtic Warrior and most notably on this occasion Skrewdriver classics, the boys did well and still managed to finish the bands on a high, even if catastrophe had beckoned once or twice.

It was two o'clock, when the warrior boys finished, sadly the bar had been drank dry, but all was not lost. Many had left to go to their various sleeping arrangements, thinking all was finished, some held parties at there births, but in the main hall a sound system was activated and cases of European beer seemed to appear from everywhere. The party carried on into the daylight hours, dawn was on us, and some carried on until the large marquee opened up to serve breakfast. But this was only the diehards! Language barriers seem to fall after a good gig with comrades who all have the same heart!

The campsite began to disappear as from about seven onwards, tents were dismantled and the weary began setting off, some with hundreds of miles to travel for work the following day, but all happy knowing they had just witnessed one of the best concerts in our scenes memory. For the organisers and security the thought that all had been an unequalled success helped when the massive clean up operation had to be undertaken.

There then followed, what many of us believe what B&H is all about. The previous day, a coach carrying fifty German comrades, dropped them off at the site, the driver then went straight to the local police station and told a pack of lies that the Skinheads who were on his coach were all drunk and that he was leaving their bags at the police station and returning to Germany, which he did. B&H organisers retrieved the baggage from the police station and returned it to our German comrades, during the evening everyone in attendance was asked to donate one pound to help the stranded return home, and just over one thousand pounds was raised. The following day mini buses belonging to the East London Division, Southern Division and newly formed Nederland's Division, all ferried our German friends to the airport, and thirty minutes after arriving, all our friends were on a flight home to Germany, were they arrived safely. The spirit which meant these comrades were looked after, and got home, meant everyone had to pull together, and make sacrifices, which all did, with no thought for themselves just the well being of our stranded comrades. Our German comrades have been in touch to thank everyone for their help, and to let us know they are taking a lawsuit out against the coach company. We wish them luck.

Another whip round was held and made just under four hundred pounds, this annual event was made for Boo's children, who were left fatherless when Boo tragically died in the same crash as Ian.

The organisers made sure everyone left the venue, and tidied up, the event was a resounding success, in every department. There is no other movement in the world, who could have safely organised and ferried such a diverse crowd around the country, estimates point to at least three to four hundred of the crowd were not from Britain, an amazing feat all were looked after, and returned safely to their point of origin. There was not one fight during the entire evening, and with such a volatile crowd as ours that is a feat! The few minor scuffles were dealt expertly, and swiftly by the B&H security lads, who controlled security inside the venue and once again showed why they really are the elite of the elite. Perimeter security this year was carried out by, 'our boys with the bikes, who manned every door and entrance to the venue and site diligently all night, ensuring everyone's safety, they gave there time (and those boys do like to party!) with no thought for themselves, so another big thank you is in order, they also and more importantly set a great example, of self sacrifice for the good of the majority.

Lastly the biggest thank you, must go to the thousand plus brave warriors who travelled from all over the world to celebrate Ian Stuart, everyone behaved so well and just enjoyed the event, everything was forgotten, petty squabbles, historical national differences, personal dislikes. People knew this was about Ian Stuart, and nothing else. It was the biggest celebration so far, and a great success, one, which we will use as a springboard to even bigger and better things. Ian's dream will come to fruition; we are on the right road, October 6th 2001, certainly proved that!

Hail Ian Stuart! Hail Blood & Honour!

Clash of Cultures

A Blood and Honour supporter's view

The United States suffered the most devastating terrorist attack in history on September 11th. Thousands were killed including hundreds of British, after hijacked airliners slammed into the twin towers of the World Trade Centre in New York and the Pentagon in Washington. A wanton act of terrorism, against the Jewish lobby that controls America and its bankrolling of the pirate state Israel, a blow against American Globalisation and the New World Order or another act of aggression by Islam and its aims of world domination?

Firstly you must look at the perpetrators of this vile crime and their religion. Islam unlike Christianity explicitly sanctions the use of violence. Sura 9, verse 5 of the Koran reads: "Then fight and slay the Pagans wherever you find them. And seize them, beleaguer them, and lie in wait for them, in every stratagem (war)." And no one can argue that this verse was written for a particular time: in the Muslim faith, the Koran is the very word of God, applying to "all people, in all times, in all places". The Koran also contains the seeds of international strife. It urges Muslims to "fight a mighty nation, fight them until they embrace Islam", and makes it clear where to look for the enemy. "Strongest among men in enmity to the believers," says Sura 5, verse 85, "wilt thou Find the Jews and Pagans."

Today all around the world one billion Muslims or one sixth of the human race, have memorised the Koran and the words of their prophet Muhammad. Muhammad urges his followers to "Struggle in the path of God" (jihad), which they have taken as an order to expand the borders of Islam in a holy war.

In our own backyard of Europe this expansion has been heroically battled as the Russians in Chechnya, Serbians in Kosovo, Bosnians and Macedonians all valiantly stand as Europe's border guards. Far from helping and arming these brave defenders N.A.T.O. has in the case of Serbia actually rewarded Muslim aggression with the gift of Serbian land, handing over the historical birthplace of Serbia Kosovo, hence aiding the Albanian's and their open goal of a Greater Albania and Muslim State in Europe.

Christians and Muslims have been fighting since the First crusade, and it has only been our vigilance, which has kept this aggressor at bay. The current military action in Afghanistan and hopefully Iraq is another crusade, and one, which I feel all Nationalists should support. It is a war of alien cultures and one fought with an enemy within. We have all seen the mess called integration on our streets, where Muslims slowly invade and take over our areas, their faith and way of life totally alien to ours, and the clashes, which follow. This is the same but on a global scale. It is estimated approximately 2000 Pakistanis from Britain have left to fight for Bin Laden so far!

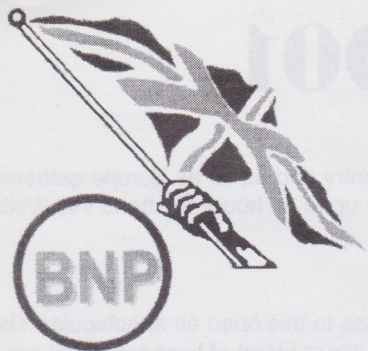

Support our glorious pilots and ground troops, who are defending our culture and its future. We have all seen and heard the Muslims celebrating on our streets about the events of September 11th. Many of us witnessed the fireworks being let off during the silence held for the victims of that attack - not the odd banger but hundreds of rockets - in areas like Slough, Hounslow, Southall and no doubt other Muslim dominated areas up and down our land. 50,000 traitors marched in our capital at protest of the Allied bombing campaign, some holding banners proclaiming Osama Bin Laden is innocent. They did not protest at the thousands killed in the World Trade Centre! Moreover they do not as a rule condemn violence as such, but only violence used in defence of Western countries.

Most Islamic terrorists are not in Afghanistan; many have never set foot in bin Laden's camps. Instead they are in the West - and most notably in Britain. Indeed, there are so many Islamic extremists living in soft touch Britain that the French police now refer to the capital as "Londonistan". Truly the enemy within!

Israel has nothing to do with this conflict, nor should the anti American sentiment which is so strong in some European Nationalist communities deflect us from the truth. This is war in defence of our faith, people and ultimately land - a defence against terrorism, one, which us in Britain know all about. And most importantly it is a war against Muslim expansion and their aim to force their will upon us, a war that has been fought and won many times in our people's history. Support our valiant troops in every way for they are fighting for us, and as we all know B & H boys in the services, they are us!

Surah 18:29 of the Koran: "Verily, We have prepared for the disbelievers a Fire whose walls will be surrounding them. And if they ask for help (relief, water etc) they will be granted water like boiling oil that will scald their faces. Terrible the drink and an evil resting place".

BNP Update

BNP SAYING "NO" to Federal Europe, Asylum & Immigration, Unemployment, SAYING "YES" to BRITISH IDENTITY, LAW & ORDER, FAMILY VALUES, and DEMOCRACY.

As the year draws to a close, the BNP leadership must feel they are going to deserve a well deserved rest this Christmas! It has been an eventful year, with the race riots none of us want, but all of us know are inevitable in today's mess of a society. This was followed on with massive and never before seen votes for the BNP in the north of England.

The BNP have put behind them their second "Red, White and Blue" Family festival, modelled on the massive French "Front National" Festival in Paris. The BNP event is still numbered in the hundreds and has a way to go before it can match the French 100,000 nationalist gathering - but given the rate of BNP growth it may be sooner than our enemies watching nervously on the sidelines think! This year's event had huge marquees, regional produce, professional caterers, bouncy castles for the kids, nationalist music of course - even a classical pianist for those who are into that sort of thing!

Also, this year has seen the ultra-professional 'Annual College'

Weekend - which is basically a training weekend. Just over 100 men and women who make up the BNP's national hard-core of Organisers and officials got together to plan next years election strategy, plan funding and even how to create your own branch website etc. This is just another indication that the BNP is now entering 'big political Party' territory.

The BNP recently launched the 'Young BNP'. The YBNP have just had their first annual 'Camp Excalibur' during which just over 30 'lads and lasses' got a taste of the outdoors, with climbing, hiking and canoeing, all held despite massive counter demonstrations by the great unwashed of the left. Again on the social front, the BNP is having it's second annual 'Bonfire Night' celebration - but they won't be burning an effigy of Guy Fawkes - you guessed it, it's Tony Blair who's going on the bonfire!

The latest activities for the BNP are the launch of their 'IslamAwareness' campaign which seeks to expose the Islamic extremists who live freely here in Britain. Some openly claim they will install an Islamic Republic here in Britain by 2025! These extremist Islamic lunatics are the same kind of people who carried out the New York bloodbath on September 11th. Whatever white nationalists might think of the US government (i.e. not much), a lot of innocent white people were wiped out and we don't want that SHIT happening here. The BNP leadership have hit the nail on the head with this campaign to keep the spotlight on the 'Mad Mullahs' on our very own doorstep. Naturally the sad, pathetic Liberals who infest the British establishment aren't happy about this and are hoping to make criticism of 'Mad Mullahs' ILLEGAL in the very near future! Thankfully a huge number of people are against this stupid new law and the campaign has already got new members flooding into the BNP!

German British Friendship! A Thank You from Germany!

This is a short letter to say a big thank you to all our British comrades who helped the stranded Germans. I think everyone has heard that the German coach drivers left us stranded at the memorial festival. And we hope you all believe us, when we say we gave them absolutely no reason to do this. We realised from the start of our journey they were a pair of arseholes. And they did try to provoke us a few times, but we all kept our cool because we all wanted to get to the gig-and we were looking forward to the journey back- so we could have a real party in the bus! It was a massive surprise when we found out the drivers had just left us without warning. We can only imagine that they just didn't like Skinheads.

Initially we tried to book another coach to take us all the way home, and then one to take us from Calais, all with no success, so we decided to get a plane from Stanstead Airport. But we faced so many problems, firstly how to get from Colchester to Stanstead, when we needed every penny we had for our flights. And then we had to get stand by seats for over forty skinheads; it seemed so complicated and daunting! It was such a relief when Gary said all was organised and comrades had volunteered to use their mini buses to take us all to Stanstead Airport, meaning that they would leave the mini buses rightful passengers back at the site to wait while we were taken safely to the airport, it also meant they would arrive home much later. We arrived at Stanstead and had barely 30 minutes to all book in for the next flight. But we finally had some luck, and with all the money we had scrapped together the last member of our party booked in with 1 minute to spare!

The only reason we could all afford the flight was because of the huge generosity of everyone at the gig, who donated over £700 so we could return home.

Two hours later we arrived in the Fatherland. All of us agree we enjoyed the trip to England immensely. Yes we all felt a little insecure at the prospect of organising our return home, but we witnessed a brilliant concert and more importantly saw with our own eyes that German-British Friendship is more than words.

We would really like to thank the owner of the venue, for his efforts in trying to organise a bus home for us, to Gary and the Southern Division, to Ginger Rob and the East London Division, The Dutch Division and all the drivers of the Mini-vans and lastly but just as importantly to all the people of Britain, Germany and the rest of Europe who supported us in our time of need that evening.

We will return the favour!

The German British Friendship will carry on! Hartwin.

HammerFest 2001

Somewhere in the deep South between Atlanta and Alabama, comrades from across the country and as far as Europe gathered for the annual HammerFest. In anticipation of this well organised event people had driven for up to 24 hours to attend this White Power Extravaganza. The build up was huge and we were not to be disappointed!

I was fortunate enough to be in attendance on the Saturday of this weekend.

Gates opened at 2pm and by late afternoon; hundreds had passed through them to be witness to this open air spectacular. The Hammerskins went out of their way to make all their European guests welcome with their Southern blend of hospitality and good humour.

A huge bonfire about 30 metres from the stage remedied the merciless cold weather. Being in the middle of the woods somewhere meant that refuelling this to last all night was not a problem. Resistance and Panzerfaust Records had stalls there to offer every CD available as well as t-shirts, mags, badges etc. The Skrewdriver scarves were to sell out very quickly and the smart buyers were the envy of many a shivering bod thawing by the fire as the night progressed.

The organisers had thought of everything - separate portaloos for the ladies (English organisers take note!) and food vans for the peckish. Alcohol was available for those who didn't bring their own. It didn't go unnoticed that the organisers had made many personal sacrifices to stage this show for us all. Thank you to Miles and the CHS Atlanta for all the tremendous work - we salute you.

Early afternoon and before a raging fire and eager crowd, Aggressive Force were the first to grace the stage. This Californian crew are a powerful act and had the perfect formula to entice folk away from the comfort of the bonfire and toward the stage. What a great front man too - he gave the crowd what they wanted in the musical form of such melodies as "White Power Skinhead", "Stand Tall" and "Time For War", then spent the rest of the night in the middle of the mosh pit himself! (Later to be seen minus one shoe but not at all perturbed by the fact).

I was really looking forward to seeing Max Resist live having both their great CDs at home. And what a treat they were. Front man Shawn had the appreciative audience singing alongside him every step of the way to crowd favourites such as "RJM" and "88 Rock n Roll Band" ~ a fitting tribute to the German heroes with current events. These Michigan lads sound every bit as dynamic live as they do on disc. What a hard act to follow!

Youngland, also from California, took to the stage next - holy moley! Where have I been? They knocked my (cotton) socks off! They had the crowd eating out of their hands from the get-go. This was without a doubt my favourite act of the day. Before the second song was over I bought their CD "We Are United Again" on the strength of what I had seen alone. Their energy, enthusiasm and on stage antics made for an unforgettable performance. This is not your stock - standard White Power band. With a breath of fresh air they present their message of white pride, angst and hope in a catchy mix of hellbent rock'n'roll, hillbilly and oi! One minute you'll want to do "do se do" and the next you'll have your air guitar out.

Tunes that stood out were "Thank God I'm a White Boy" - absolutely raucous!- "Stand One, Stand All" and "Waiting For the Ride". Celtic Warrior's Billy also jumped up for a guest appearance, which was a nice touch!

Hate Machine were next up. If you like it hard and heavy, this band is for you. Being bred on traditional oi! this is not my personal cup of tea however this style of music was certainly very popular with the home crowd. I do think it's a positive thing to have such a diverse genre of musical styles on offer in our movement. The more we can appeal to, the bigger and stronger we become.

Talking of old school oi! , up next were Intimidation One from Oregon. Very tight, very impressive. Just how I like it - powerful yet catchy. Tunes you can sing along to - and everyone did just that. Brilliant stuff. They are also a rare breed of US band to sing an anti IRA song - "UDA arise". Yep, we notice stuff like that!

Chris from the Midtown Bootboys joined them on stage as it was to sadly be his last performance.

up on stage with them and doing some backing vocals. The singer encouraged them with warmth and respect and they were received with an adoring applause - no doubt they did their parents proud.

The Bully Boys continued to belt out a great set of toe tappers before handing the audience over to the Finnish contingent - Mistreat.

Mistreat were greeted with much enthusiasm. Watching the crowd, it was clear many would have travelled for this band alone. They chose wisely to sing their English tunes which enabled everyone to sing along. The atmosphere was charged with energy and it was blatantly clear that these Finnish lads have a huge American following.

Our very own Scottish gents, Nemesis, had the job of following up that act. I didn't envy them that task as a relatively new band. By now temperatures had reached near freezing and nearly all were seeking haven by the fire. But by the end of the first song many had migrated bravely against the elements back to the stage area unable to resist that Scottish charm.

These lads are so professional and tight, they sound like they've been playing together for years. And with a stand-in drummer too! They gave the crowd what they wanted - mostly skinhead classics and popular sing songs. They wound the evening up perfectly. Many a new Nemesis fan was made this evening.

As a Brucie Bonus, band members from all the day's lineup merged together to do a medley of tunes together on stage. It profoundly summed up the whole intent and purpose of this yearly gathering - together we are strong. And the message of white pride worldwide.

With that last image to go home with, combined with flashbacks of the children singing onstage and Jock and Justine's wedding that very morning (congratulations!), one could not help but leave with a tremendous sense of hope and the 14 words etched firmly in heart and mind.

(CHS- Atlanta would like to state that no animals were harmed in the making of this event bar a moose).

NATIONALISTS AGAINST GLOBALISATION

Bruges, 150 extreme right nationalists against globalisation demonstrated on the evening of September the 5th, the reason was to protest at the EU meeting of ministers of foreign trade in Bruges.

The demonstration didn't have any impact on the EU-excellencies because they had pathetically scuttled off a few hours before the demonstration.

As promised by the organisers, the demonstrators didn't cause any trouble. Anyhow they couldn't because the police had completely surrounded them. In the front and at the sides armed police officers in combat clothing and behind us a line of armoured cars. The police presence was over 200 men.

A counter-demonstration by left-wing progressive groups of the unwashed didn't materialise: "We don't want to give these people more attention than they deserve", said Jan Dumalyn, co-organiser of the left-wing Mani-Fest.

Most of the Flemish Block-members followed the decision of the national president Frank Vanhecke and staid away from the demonstration. But City council member Lucien Decoorne (ex-Flemish-Block) and Gino Decraemer (ex-president of the Flemish Block) were there!

The nationalists chanted slogans for the preservation of our own identity. We demanded Flemish independence and regional autonomy in a Europe of people as an alternative to the multicultural capitalistic union! "We despise the outgrowths of the globalisation such as: immigration, the selling of our own trade, abuse of asylum, drugs..." said Alain Quataert, in the year 2000 he was a candidate in the elections for the Flemish Block.

The demonstration ended without any incidents. On the Jan Van Eyckplein, where the police had to tow away a container with rocks, just a few minutes before the demonstration.

Just making sure the demonstrators don't get bad ideas, said a police officer!

BH Vlaanderen

SECTION 88

Could you tell us when you originally formed ? What made you form a RAC band? And who was the original line up?

The origins of the band started way back in 93, when they were a punk band called Brainache Attack. The line up was Steve (Only Surviving member) James, Ross & John. Two of the members then broke away and on April 20th 1994 they formed Section 88. Getting on stage and recording became a problem due to commitment problems from band members. Section 88 then reformed in 1997 with a new vocalist but yet again certain people became unreliable.

Could you tell us about the current line up, and why you decided to take to the musical warpath again?

The current line up is Mick (Vocals) Steve (Lead Guitar) John (Bass) Matt (Drums). We formed the band because of our love of the music and the need to get the National Socialist message across to as many people as possible, especially when we are seeing more and more people understandably lose faith in the outdated and corrupt political system they call democracy. That's why Blood and Honour frightens the shit out of the government.

How would you describe your sound? And what subjects are you focussing on?

Our sound is Very raw, and Very aggressive Oi! Music, the sort of music we were all brought up on. We cover subjects relating to National Socialism, Loyalism and the love of our country, oh yeah and the fact we are all skinheads tends to bring out that bit of aggressiveness in our music.

How many gigs have you performed in all and with which bands?

We have not played any gigs at present, but the time this interview goes to print we should have played our first gig supporting the mighty EYE OF ODIN. We are also scheduled to appear at the White Christmas Gig this year.

How do you view the current B&H scene, its bands , magazine etc ? which bands do you rate?

The Blood & Honour scene is as strong and united as its ever been, and the organisation of the gigs and the magazine just gets better and better. We respect all Blood & Honour bands, Our favourites being Bulldog Breed, Eye of Odin, Legion of St George, Whitelaw and Nemesis. Across the pond we rate Intimidation One and the Bully Boys.

Also how do you view the current Nationalist scene in the UK, do you support any groups?

The Nationalist scene in Britain seems to be gaining a good deal of momentum, but the NF and BNP going head to head in Oldham next year is not going to help matters. It will be interesting to see what new laws appear on the statute book if the BNP get a councillor in Oldham next year. Our band members support groups ranging from the British Hammerskins, British Movement and National Front. And of course Blood & Honour GB.

How is the Nationalist freedom fighting scene in your area?

As far as South London and North Kent is concerned the nationalist scene seems to be picking up. We are now seeing more and more ethnic minorities moving into places which not long ago were deemed as white strongholds, and unsurprisingly white people are getting somewhat miffed about it!!

When will we see Section 88 record ? Have you any merchandise?

Rampage Productions have kindly asked us to record two tracks for the Voice of Britain 2 compilation, which will hopefully be out early next year. As far as our own CD is concerned, we have enough material, its just a matter of getting signed to a label. We have our own Section 88 T-Shirts available in Med - Large - X-Large priced at £10.00. We can be contacted through B&H Southern Division.

Any closing comments?

We would like to thank Blood & Honour for giving us the opportunity to let people know who we are and what we are about, and just to say you are doing a great job in promoting the National Socialist cause through the medium of music.

Racial Regards, Section 88.

Blood and Honour Midgard Vlaanderen.

Proudly presents:

At the end of August, Blood & Honour Midgard Vlaanderen held their first social. It turned out to be a real gig! There were two bands: Fraternite Blanche and Panzerjager, both from France. Over 200 people attended this gig. People from France, Holland, Germany, and England and of course Flanders attended.

We started the evening off with a new band: Fraternite Blanche, who played a good aggressive set and finished with some classic covers of older bands. After this powerful set came Panzerjager, a band a bit more known over here, which have also played with Brutal Attack. They played a brilliant set, great sound; powerful lyrics and the crowd went wild, even the landlord and some older regulars from the pub started dancing.

At half past midnight we thought about ending the show because everyone seemed played out, but no! There was a surprise act! Some Dutch comrades borrowed the instruments from the French bands and started playing Skrewdriver covers. Everybody went wild and got a chance to sing. Some sang better than the others. (hey, Big John!)

At about two o'clock in the morning we ended our first gig with no real problems, an excellent atmosphere and a great crowd. Thanks to everybody who attended this gig and made it an excellent evening. And thanks to our B&H crew who worked so hard in getting everything prepared and getting everything cleaned up.

To all brothers everywhere next time more we will advertise more, and then we hope to see you here!

Hail Victory! BH Midgard Vlaanderen.

South East London proudly presents an evening of local talent.

November 3rd, 2001.

A now regular venue in South East London was the show piece setting for Section 88, Bulldog Breed and Eye of Odin, all three bands being based in the area made the event a real local affair.

The hall was teeming when we arrived and a good couple of hundred comrades, all awaited the re emergence of Section 88. The boys - Matt on drums, John - bass, Steve - lead guitar and the baby faced assassin Mick 'bubsy' took the stage, and although they looked a little apprehensive stormed through a cracking set, which showed all the practicing they had done for the last few months was well worth the effort, the boys have also turned down many gig offers, holding out till they knew they were ready, and fair play to them, 'cause they were great. They played an eight-song set and one encore of Poseur, the Combat 84 classic. The other songs were British Bootboys, Wall of Lies, Asylum Seeker (brilliant) Pride of our People, Homeland and Loyal Ulster. A great debut and everyone is gonna hear more from these lads, another good old British Oi! sounding band, with a great future ahead of them.

Bulldog Breed one of the most active British bands at the moment took the stage, and with all their gigging lately ripped through what we all know and expect, they seem very comfortable now, and have really moulded into a class act, as only time and effort can do. My England was my favourite, but everyone has a BB fave, to sing along with.

Lastly and heading off a great night, were the local raving axe men Eye of Odin another very busy band, and another who have relaxed into a good crowd pleasing outfit. Lead singer Mickey certainly gives a fantastic stage show now, maybe Mr McClellan finally has some competition. All the great anthems from Odin's Chosen, graced the set and our appreciative ears, everyone lapped it up.

A superb night and another very well attended gig, in what is becoming a very busy time for our scene, lets hope it long continues, with all the dates set and new bands, it certainly is an exciting time. The tide of the war seems to be turning in our favour!

Scene News

After a 15-month investigation German Secret Police raided 22 German comrades in the search for German heroes of the resistance Landser, coincidentally the raids were just as many of the German comrades were leaving to join us at the I.S.D. Memorial! After the raids the national television smugly announced all the members of Landser and those responsible for their cd distribution had been arrested, this has still to be proved. To date 4 comrades are still in prison, they have to spend 23 hours in their cell with just one hour to stretch their limbs, and the only contact they are allowed is with their lawyer. We salute all the comrades' alleged to be members of Landser and wish them well, and all success in the coming courtroom battle. We hope the German authorities give them a fair trial, unlike the show trial justice meted out to Frank Renike. We salute you, and feel the pain you are enduring for Germany's future well being.

Skinhead riots, we are very glad to report all the skinheads charged for defending themselves and their families, in what the press dubbed the Aylesbury riots have had the charges against them dropped. Not before they had all attended court hearings, a marriage was broken and a family was put through unnecessary trauma. Really we shouldn't be pleased the charges have been dropped, but aggrieved our system treats its own in such a disgusting manner.

Armco our Italian brothers in arms, who played so magnificently at the I.S.D. Memorial have their first cd out now, on Tuono Records (tureco@it), titled "Ubi Maior Minor Cessat". Early reports say it sounds just like Peggior Amico. Also just out on Tuono Records is Injustice Side with "Justice is Dead" a new band who rose from the ashes of ADL 122, another Italian band, who played the first ever staged Ian Stuart Memorial, this is described as "hardcore-hate core."

Congratulations to Jock and Justine on their October marriage, may they have many blissful years together. And congratulations go out to Charlie former Legionaire and now Rage n Fury lead singer and his wife Aleta on the November birth of their first daughter. May you have many sleep filled nights.

Elfenbloed (Elfish blood) from Flanders who describe themselves as having a total holocaust of sound! Have a four-track demo out. It's a 4-piece Demo, of extreme fast and powerful black metal all in Flemish. Dealing with the Flemish struggle, honour, pride, the extermination of ZOG and the African tumour that infects our lands, glorification of past times and National Socialistic ideologies. It's entitled: Bloed en Ere (Blood and Honour). Enquiries =Cormanthor88@hotmail.com or, by using the postal address, "Elfenbloed, Postbus 94, 8000 Brugge". Everyone who has heard it has been very impressed and Grimgaert from the 'tSwaert der Duusternes magazine even called it: "the best that the Flemish underground has ever brought forth"

Soon to be released on Jens Puehse is a co-production between Puehses Liste and Panzerfaust Records called "The best of Panzerfaust Records - die ersten Einschlague". The CD will include 13 songs from 13 bands (Youngland, Aggressive Force, Bully Boys, Battlefront, Stonehammer, Dying Breed, Extreme Hatred, Plunder & Pillage, Patriotic Front, White Wash, Vinland Warriors, Griffin and Brutal Attack).

Spreegeschwader from Berlin have just released a new CD, 14 of their best songs have been re mixed and released under the title "Schneller, Lauter, Haerter".

Swiss band Erbarmungslos will release their first CD on the Panzerfaust Records.

Attack will release their new fare titled "World of Ruin". Angry Aryans are currently in the studio to record their third CD, called "Old school hate", both will be Resistance releases.

Australia: The chief minister of Australia's Northern Territories has promised to run naked through Darwin if the opposition One Nation Party wins a single seat in a forthcoming election. Denis Burke made his promise on NT News. Subsequent opinion polls in one seat suggest One Nation could win as much as 37% of the vote...get those clothes off and start running boy!

Former members of Czech band Buldok, have formed a band named Wolfheart, and are looking to release their first cd shortly.

Endstufe one of the Fatherland's finest, now has an official Homepage www.endstufebremen.de Loyalty, skinhead warriors from the Oxford area, had their homepage hacked by them naughty boys from 'Nottingham red action', who then proceeded to send everyone in their address book e mails, informing everyone the 'shock horror news', that Loyalty knew some Nationalists! And are very close, to a Nationalist band, in the form of Battle Standard. Considering the entire band are skinheads we seriously doubt that this was big surprise to anyone!

Lynch Mob, have continued their midnight raids, and Dave and his hooded musical mobsters, have struck twice, since the last issue, on each occasion they get better, surely a recording is on the cards now.

BEOWULF has just released Hranice Sl-v (Full of Glory). A great CD, containing 10, WP melodic rock songs. The lyrics are almost all of a mythological theme. There is also one song sung in English (I think the best one) and a female vocalist adds spice to a few of the songs. A quality booklet with the cd is all in English. Lasting 40.50, it's good value and was released and available from Beowulf promotions contactable at beoprod@hotmail.com.

Battle Standard, have been very busy since last update, apart from gigging they have just completed a split recording with Australia's Bail Up on Rampage and have also recorded two tracks for the forthcoming "Voice of Britain vol 2", on Unity. They also have a home page found at www.members.tripod.com/battlestandard.

Legion of St George played the Return to Camelot in Italy and the I.S.D. Memorial, both in a four-week period, 1000 plus audiences becoming the norm for them! In the Footsteps of Heroes is finally here and a website is under construction at www.legionofstgeorge.com

Warlord played an extensive 27 song set at the Return to Camelot. Stigger has also stated they are looking for a good political party to record their next musical offering "Psycho Circus" for.

Crusade another band from the South East London area, who unfortunately had to pull out of their home town gig on November 3rd, have other dates set, and are sure to go down a storm on the back of their latest release "Renaissance".

Avalon, the long wait is nearly over, "A Journey Through Avalon", on Rampage Productions is here. Everyone who has heard this gem already, reckon its dynamite. A cd of all the Avalon classics re recorded to their utmost potential, the bollox!

Stigger Sisco and Meg, the female balladeer, and John from Nemesis all played outstanding ballad sets at the hugely successful second BNP Red White and Blue festival.

Battle Flag, Triumpf of the Will, Real Aggression, Revolt and New Moment are all good bands looking for someone brave enough to release their material, anyone interested can contact them at bh_serbia_bgd@hotmail.com or through the post address BH Serbia, P.O.Box 46, 11118 Belgrade 32, Yugoslavia/Serbia

Blood & Honour

NEWS FROM THE FRONTLINE

Blood & Honour has continued in its aim of unifying our ranks, outside of Great Britain. In the last Issue we had the honour of unveiling the Dutch Division, who worked very hard to earn the right to bear our name. After months of communication, meetings and trips to England, we can now also unveil another Division in our growing Slavic Section, Blood & Honour Slovenia! This group has met all the criteria asked of them, and although already very politically active, have decided to continue these activities under the Blood & Honour banner, since confirmation of their acceptance on November 3rd, they have already built ties and began many projects and look set to become a very welcome addition to our brotherhood.

Blood & Honour, is also negotiating, with three other groups who wish to join our ranks, we will keep you informed.

Another occurrence of note, since the last magazine was an unfortunate episode involving a pretender named 'Christine', she was contacting Blood & Honour groupings around the world and asking for donations for a 'c18 California cd', claiming this was an Official B&H group, and the money was for an official B&H fundraiser. Luckily B&H Australia smelt a rat! Contacted main HQ, and had it verified this was another moneymaking scam by profiteers using our name. Blood and Honour, while having many supporters in the United States of America and contact with many good groups, has as of yet NO OFFICIAL PRESENCE IN THE U.S.A. anyone claiming otherwise, is merely a police operative or money making scumbag. The individual concerned was tracked and identified as a member of the W.A.U., a well known group of honour and integrity, once presented with all the facts, the leadership of the W.A.U. acted swiftly and decisively to cleanse its ranks. The sad individual, and another partner in crime, while still squatting on our name, has found herself 'out in the cold', whereas mixing with decent groups is concerned. The moral of this tale is all misfits using our name unofficially, once found, and identified, will be cut away and ejected from our scene, no matter were you are! That is the only way to stop a rotten cancer spreading.

Our B&H Info and General sections on the Internet received many e-mails from Scandinavian and British comrades prior to the I.S.D Memorial, all wishing to attend, but under the impression that due to previous unwise political affiliations, there safety couldn't be guaranteed. Blood & Honour would like to make it clear; all are welcome at Blood & Honour events, whether they be former Scandinavian or British c18 supporters, only those who were involved in the many dishonourable activities performed by this group, will never be entertained again, and they certainly don't need to ask who they are.

Greetings from B&H Portugal division!

As with all other divisions we payed our respects in September once more to our greatest leader and guiding light Ian Stuart Donaldson!!! Our web page is being built and it seems it could see the light of day by the end of December 2001. Also our first divisional newsletter is being prepared, it is also expected to be released near the end of 2001. We have also started working with a Portuguese NS/NR organization called C-NR (national Revolutionary Coordinator), which will consist of the distribution of flyers against the USA imperialism. We have also strengthened links and started working with the Serbian women NS organization "Girls Youth". On the 20th of October B&H Portugal participated in a dinner organized by the Portuguese NS youth organization "JNS-National Socialist Youth", that consisted of only members of JNS and B&H Portugal and some NS individuals. We would also like to ask for help and the cooperation of all Divisions with our web page and newsletter, if comrades could send us news, reviews etc all would be appreciated. No surrender! B&H Portugal

B&H Bulgaria, We have held big NS concert in the town Vratza. The old band Sram&Pozor has returned! They played with a new skinhead band from Pleven. Even better news is that on 30th November they will play again in the Sofian club O'Shipka. The Bulgarian NS band has returned to the scene after 3 maybe even 4 years! Also the Webmaster of bhhungaria.com, was raided and imprisoned by the police for the official B&H website, this is why it has not been updated for a few months. Thankfully he has now been released from prison and is once again fighting for the Bulgarian people!

Report from the Dutch division Blood & Honour

We are a small group at the moment of 10 members but we are growing. Although we have no bands we always have access to a band called Brigade M and contact with Landstorm, one of the members is an old friend of mine. We plan to start contacting different people in the near future, but because we have a lot of organisational matters at the moment and we are still a small group we intend to make a firm base first. In a few weeks is a party for a number key people who will spread the word that B&H in Holland is now a reality and we are ready to move! At this moment in time we are having t-shirts and polo's made with our divisional Name and our adopted symbol the wolfs hook. Our opening concert is planned for May, June or July, depending on the weather and sleeping places at campsites.

The Dutch scene is a bit of a mess, at the moment. All we hear is that people are fighting each other and calling each other names. We are planning to change that and are going to talk with some individuals and arrange a get together with some people so they can settle there differences. But first we will grow stronger and consolidate our position.

We would also like to ask if anyone has advice or ideas on how we can advance our division, all would be appreciated, please send to our official PO address. Hail B&H 14/88. Blood & Honour Nederland

B&H Austria reports. This summer we organised a concert in Vorarlberg with Noie Werte (D) Stromschlag (D) Tollschock (A), with 500 people attending it was the biggest ever gig in Austria! We also organised 2 ballads evenings with Frank Rennicke and one with Wolfsrudel and Peter Muller, both were well attended by around 100 comrades. Also in the pipeline is a B&H Austria Sampler but so far we have only two bands!! Any one interested please email us at bh_wien@hotmail.com. The Austrian B&H magazine is also now available from PO Box 8, H-9495, Hungary. Price Euro 8 DM 15 ATS 100. - INC P&P. Blood & Honour Austria

Blood & Honour Serbia, 88 brothers from England! Razor 88 will release their first CD soon for Panzerfaust records, consisting of 14 songs all in English. Serbian hammer skin band Radical Patriots have just released their first CD called "Awake", 5 songs are sung in English and 5 in Serbian, it is on 88 Records who have a new address: 88 Records, P.O.Box 23, 11160 Belgrade, Yugoslavia/Serbia or if you are interested in buying or exchanging cds, you can write to alexshs1488@hotmail.com. Revolt is an old Serbian NS band and they have reformed and are playing again. Protal leader of the band found new members, and they played their first come back gig at the Adolf Hitler memorial last year and now they are preparing new material for their first CD. Triumph of the Will a Serbian B&H band from Belgrade are also preparing to record. Nationalists smash police and gay, lesbian demonstration! The aftermath was 40 Nationalists in jail and several police and gays in hospital. Serbian Nationalist forces won total victory. Several members of the Serbian B&H and SHS also smashed the offices of the Social Democratic Union party whose president Zarko Korac is openly gay and is also vice -president for the Serbian pro-Zionist government. Because of this action 5 brave comrades are in jail awaiting trial. Issue 8/9 of the Official Serbian B&H magazine is now out and all interested can contact us at B&H Serbia, P.O.Box 46, 11118 Belgrade 32, Yugoslavia/Serbia or by using our official e mail address bh_serbia_bgd@hotmail.com and finally Serbian B&H division can proudly unveil its official web page at <http://members.odinsrage.com/bhserbia> Hail Blood & Honour!

B & H New Zealand extends greetings to our friends and brothers throughout the British Isles and Europe. Also we would like to apologise to anyone who has written and not yet received a reply. Zog seems to withhold some of our mail indefinitely. It seems strange though that our correspondence appears to be so interesting to them. Closet patriots maybe?!!!

We will hopefully have an e - mail address set up early in the new year which will make overseas contact that much easier, as N.Z is so isolated it is very difficult getting overseas bands as it would cost a fortune flying people halfway around the world, so much depends on commitment and stealth on those directly around you.

Things have been relatively quiet here with Zog keeping a very watchful eye. Some comrades have had raids and also arrests have been made, false charges have been laid, and some very excessive force by some of Zog's blue bullyboys. A complete waste of time and money having to legally defend against such stupidity. I can see things getting worse on this front, as everyone is a 'terrorist' these days. Another notch in the belt toward a Zionist world order. The N.Z scene has got great potential though, being a very young and relatively small but strong division, new people are showing interest all the time. For the blood and for the honour Wolf - B & H N.Z

Blood & Honour Australia, reports:

B&H Victoria:

"With Blood and Honour, we get across to a lot more younger people, and a lot of people who find politics boring, because certain aspects of it are boring, but if you come to a concert - you see a band, and you believe in the message the band puts out, that can be just as good as going to a political meeting, and maybe that can inspire people to out and get involved in a nationalist party in their own country." IAN STUART

I think this statement says a lot for Australia. Where the political parties have failed, Blood and Honour reaches out to a wide group of people, and shows them that there is a genuine alternative to the mainstream, and to the continuous brainwashing of the controlled media. This is very important in an age when most people don't have a lot of hope for the future of our country, or a lot of faith in the so-called political leaders who control it.

Through the use of music as a propaganda weapon, Blood and Honour has gained considerable support in most of the large Australian cities, and other towns throughout. Support for Blood and Honour is continuing to grow, and with the emergence of newer bands to spread the message of white resistance, this can only be a good thing.

The almighty Fortress were at the forefront of forming Blood and Honour in Australia, and had led the charge alone for a number of years, but recently they have been joined by such bands as Ravenous, Death's Head, and Bail Up! Other bands that have now called it a day are the likes of White Noise, Open Season, and Honour Guard. International acts to visit our shores are bands like Brutal Attack, and Celtic Warrior. Gigs are a regular event, and have been held in most Australian cities, such as Canberra (Australia's capitol), Sydney, Brisbane, and of course Melbourne.

Melbourne no doubt has the highest number of supporters for Blood and Honour in Australia, and this has mostly been the case over the years. It is hometown to the bands Fortress and Ravenous, and in more recent months, the consolidation of Death's Head in Melbourne has made the city an even bigger stronghold. The ever increasing numbers of metal heads at Blood and Honour shows, plus the willingness of a few of the local thrash and death metal bands to play with Blood and Honour bands, gives one the impression that many supporters of the metal bands may soon be regulars at Blood and Honour shows, further expanding the diversity of the crowd, from skinheads, to metal heads, to normal people who choose to support Blood and Honour because of the positive pro-white message it puts out.

With political literature, CD's, and other books and items such as t-shirts, etc, readily available at Blood and Honour shows, there is an ever-increasing number of people in attendance who believe heart and soul in our cause. People that are training and educating themselves daily, to ensure the future of Blood and Honour in Australia is in sound hands, and will continue to strive through whatever opposition we face. Making certain that Blood and Honour will be around in Australia for many years to come, and will continue to grow from strength to strength. HAIL VICTORY!

B&H Australia, New South Wales, and Australian Capital Territory report: Once again B&H Australia- Victoria branch pulled off another great Ian Stuart Memorial gig in Melbourne, with Death Head, Ravenous and Fortress playing. Ravenous have now released their first C.D., well done Shannon and Joel. Bail Up! have just finished playing Switzerland and France, many thanks from the band go to the people who filled in on drums and bass for them.

A hand full of Australians where at the British I.S.D. Memorial gig, what a great night!!! Massive thanks to the bands and congratulations to B&H for holding such an event, music at its finest, and a night that we will never forget!!! It was a real blast seeing the bands play live, when most of us have only been able to listen to recordings, must admit, it was a new experience for some of us going to a gig and not seeing Fortress play! B&H Great Britain, your organisation and hard work leading up to the gig certainly paid off. It was great strengthening old friendships and meeting new comrades. Special gratitude to the British for your warm hospitality that you have shown us all during our stay, we look forward to returning the favour when you visit our distant shores. The night was more than just great bands and fun times, it celebrated the life of a man, the unity and eternal comradeship of our folk, from so many different countries, together we are strong and together we will win! HAIL UNITY. HAIL BLOOD AND HONOUR!

BH Ukraine

The history of the Right Wing Movement in Ukraine began 9-10 years ago. Then in the capital Kyiv, a powerful grouping of nazi punks appeared. Then our country was part of the USSR, i.e. was behind "Iron Curtain". Our movement was not, an organized one, as we did not have the information from the rest of the outside world. Between Kyiv nazi punks and punk groupings from other cities of the country total war was waged: all punks coming in capital, were ruthlessly beaten for having idiotic mohican's and dirty clothes. When Kyiv nazi punks went to other cities, they did anything, they wanted - people were afraid and no one fought back. Kyiv nazi punks, all wore NS symbols on their clothes and greeted each using the "Roman greeting" of the first Reich.

In 1992 in Kyiv the first nazi punk groups formed "Grief" and "ZDV66/1". In 1993 - the female project "Svastika". Numerous concerts and actions were carried out by the Kyiv nazi's. They even had their own - club. The Movement was developing very strongly and beginning to represent a very real danger to authorities...

Then there was our first tragedy: one of our founders and leaders of the movement was killed by militia under very strange circumstances... a State plot? The victim was the guitarist of "Grief", his death caused the band to split; and as his best friend was present and witnessed what happened at the murder, he was placed in a psychiatric hospital and left the movement; losing his wife, as she also suffered from a powerful nervous trauma and also have left ...She was the third and the last head of the nazi punks. So the first right wing movement in Ukraine had died.... After the "Iron Curtain" had fallen, information from the outside world began to get to the Ukraine. We learned about the Skinhead movement and understood, that that what we did earlier as nazi punks was no different to what the skinheads did. Guys, once former punks began to name themselves "skinheads", and the first Skinhead band in Ukraine was formed from two disorganized punk groups. Their name was "Bulldog"... and this was in 1996. They played concerts and took part in direct action and are still very well known in this country. But once it was found out, that the vocalist and bass guitarist of group were drug addicts, the guitarist Arseniy and drummer Demjan expelled them from the group and recruited new guys. They also decided the name should be replaced, since it had been disgraced ... So "Sokyra Peruna" was born!

To make sure drug addicts, never disgraced our scene again, rules were set. The next step was the opening of a BH branch in the Ukraine. Carrying on the organization Arseniy and Demjan had started, and in 1998 the branch was created!

"Sokyra Peruna" has now recorded two albums, in 1998 and in 1999. The Movement has got stronger and developed. Numerous concerts and actions have made us known all over the country. By 1999 the number of members in Kyiv alone was 40 people. Skinheads have now begun appearing in other cities all over the country.

At first BH searched for supporters in political circles. The most popular with the radical youth was the Sotsial-National Part of Ukraine (SNPU). A number of BH members belonged to this party. At the same time the SFU Skinhead Front of Ukraine was created. The idea of this creation belonged to Olexandra. It was meant, that the organization would unite all the skinheads who had not joined BH. But soon the SFU proved to be the most provocative organization, which created the biggest stir with the Government. But unpleasant facts have come to light, that the majority of SFU members are drug users and people completely lacking in ideas... All BH members have consequently left the SFU and have declared war on all junkies. Olexandra left as leader of the SFU, but it has continued existing, but only in a very small and formal state.

For BH there has been bad times as well: just like in many branches of the world, internal wars and quarrels began. Some bad attitudes were aired out, and some groups also argued with each other. Gradually BH Ukraine came nearer to the condition in Russia where internal wars have reached the critical stage. But this was when all leadership duties were passed to Olexandra. There was no bloody revolution. People understood it was a time for drastic changes. Time has shown, that the choice was correct. Olexandra was able to consolidate and unite not only the skins of our own city but has also managed to create a powerful structure for our organisation all over the country.

Now BH Ukraine has 4 cooperating branches: the Centre, the South, the East and the West. Each branch has its own specific identity: the Centre is the ideological "heart" of BH, the South makes quality Oi! The West is very close to the national branch; the East is the Pagan Front of Ukraine - the organization of black metalists. Especially pleasing to us is the fact, that the Ukrainian Movement has not taken one uniformed style. There maybe not a lot of us, but those there are, are all checked up and reliable people.

The Skinhead scene in our country is very strong. It's not that numerous, but it is very strong in quality. In the right wing music scene of Ukraine all styles of RAC are represented - from the elementary Oi! ("Tsyruhnya", "White Squall", "Nachtigall") to pagan metal ("Nocturnal Mortum", "Dub Buk", "Spearhead"). Our most popular, and famous White Power bands are: "Sokyra Peruna" and "Whites Load". We proudly play RAC. It is our privilege! Because the Ukraine. More than any other country has suffered from the evils of communism and its war against Nationalism and cultural identity. They have taken thousands and thousands from our country to mass extermination camps, and tried to forbid our language and national history.

We were brought up on WP classics ("Skrewdriver", "B.F.G.", "No Remorse" and others). This music has forever become our ideal and given us reason for our struggle.

Today we are proud to boast of many R.A.C. bands in the mighty "Slavic wing": "Whites Load", "Excalibur", "Honor", "Division 88", "Bulldok" and many-many others. Our biggest period of concert's to date was in the year 2000. When we successfully organised and held about 10 concerts in Ukraine. Among them was a grandiose festival of right wing music, with "Kolovorot" and played in Kharkiv. There was also a lot of pagan, metal and WP groups playing in Ukraine, Russia, Poland and Byelorussia. Since then we have had many problems organising concerts, hiring halls etc...as the authorities try to make it harder for us, but it does not stop us!

In the political arena there has been lots of positive actions aswell: in cooperation with UNA-UNSO we have carried out some very powerful actions and participated in national Ukrainian action "Ukraine without Kuchma".

We can say with much pride, that our branch is one of the "safest" and well organized in the world! Hail Victory! BH Ukraine.

FIRST MEETING OF BLOOD & HONOUR SLOVENIA!

On the 2nd of November all the active Slovenian skinheads gathered, to reorganise and make a good solid basis for the new Slovenian Blood & Honour Division.

Our wishes are to establish an organization which will cover and unite all Slovenia, because the skinhead scene in Slovenia is still very young and divided. This has been caused by several small NS organizations, which worked against each other in the past. The time has come to unite under one flag and work seriously and hard to achieve our aims, in order to become a valued member of this brotherhood.

Our goals for now are to spread the ideals of National Socialism in Slovenia, to create an official webpage, which can be found at <http://bhslovenia.cjb.net> to represent our Blood & Honour division on the internet, to make a magazine for our division, which will be written in Slovenian and English, to support all active bands by all means and lastly to organize small concerts.

We know that we as a country are small, but we have 15 active members, who will run the division. Each one of the 15 man leadership has been designated his own task and part in motivating other people to join us under the same name, in our fight for the right cause!

BOOTLEGGING

At a recent concert, serious allegations of bootlegging were made against a vendor. Although we as an organisation do not sell any merchandise, we feel responsible that anyone selling at our events is doing so on our recommendation, and we would like all our comrades attending our events to receive the best merchandise possible, it is also a very dishonourable practice, we will not condone in any form. We have spoken to the vendor responsible, and he has given explanations, and these and apologies have been made to offended parties, in this case overseas. The offending material has been destroyed. Ignorance is no defence!

We have issued a first warning in this case, as we will to anyone found selling bootlegged material at our events. Anyone who again breaches this warning and offends for a second time will be banned from selling merchandise at any future B&H events. NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE MADE, so check you stock for your own sake and for your customers.

EDITORIAL NOTE: As you may have noticed, the last few issues have been a bit erratic in publishing dates and quality, although this hasn't affected sales. This is due to our editorial team changing over to a DTP system to improve quality and content. There have been a few teething troubles with finding a compatible software system, but we think you'll agree we seem to have crested the hill with this issue. Due to a backlog of articles we have excluded the letter/music review pages for this issue. It will be back to normal next issue. The Before God interview will also be making it into print, finally! Apologies all round and we look forward to your continued support. WE ARE GOING FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH, UNITED AS ONE!

Appeal - The Rennicke family in misery. Scandal judgement.

Who will be next?

On November 22nd 2000 the German folk singer Frank Rennicke and his wife Ute, were tried by the Court in Boeblingen because of one of his songs titled "Heimatvertriebene" ("Expellee").

In the song the nationalist singer expressed his concern about foreign infiltration and the multicultural society in Germany. Prosecutor Wolfgang Mertig of Kornwestheim demanded a sentence of 2-1/2 years imprisonment for Frank Rennicke and 9 months probation for incitement of the masses for his wife in this political case. The so-called "crime" Ute Rennicke is accused of, is to have accepted an order over the telephone (which was proved by a telephone tap)! The singer was denied the constitutional guaranteed freedom of speech in his trial.

According to the judge Dr. Werner Payer of Sindelfingen, the song is a call for "violence against immigrants", Frank Rennicke was sentenced to a 10 months suspended sentence for 3 years and his wife was sentenced to a DM 1.000, - fine. The family savings of DM 70.000, - was confiscated beforehand and kept because of the trial. All this because of a song, which is almost 15 years old and in which the singer expressed his feelings about foreign immigration and the loss of free speech.

The family has already lodged an appeal to defend our liberty of opinion as well as the right of resistance against foreign infiltration and against a kind of modern medieval justice system used by the European Court of Justice.

The measures taken against the Rennicke family show the dismantling of fundamental rights for nationalists and people criticising the system in Germany. Should this Government policy become more widespread, it will of course affect many others. People who fight the system and openly express themselves against this multicultural society. Family members of singers, authors or publishers could be sentenced for having taken orders or helping packing parcels for subsequently criminalized CDs or books, which were at the time legal!

This trial not only means the loss of their savings for Frank and Ute Rennicke, but also the well-being and future of their family. With probation of 3 years hanging over him, career-conscious prosecutors will surely try to follow this verdict and object to other songs (even if they are many years old) and they will try to sentence Frank Rennicke again. Imprisonment for the singer and probation for his wife is sure to follow at the least. Being so easy to make criminals of a loving father and mother, certain groups are sure to try to take away their five children using the reason they are not bringing their children up in a democratic way. This might sound far-fetched to naïve contemporary people but it is the logical consequences of this trial. Our task is to help the Rennicke family.

Help measures for the Rennicke family are:

- Moral and financial support.
- Write to national newspapers, organisations, political parties etc and inform them about the judgement and ask them for corresponding action.
- The action against the Rennicke family and the trial has to be publicised throughout the media to alert the public.
- . This can be done through leafleting, posters, demonstrations, information stalls, the Internet etc.
- Come to the Court in Stuttgart for the next trial. Hundreds of people are taking part in national demonstrations. Why shouldn't hundreds of us appear before the Court demanding acquittal and fundamental rights for the Rennicke family?
- Create leaflets for the wider public in which people are informed about all the facts in the persecution of the Rennicke family (it should contain the prehistory, the trial and the consequences of the trial).
- Write to daily newspapers, magazines etc and inform them about the case. Write to the reader letters section. It is well known they are co-ordinated and always report in a negative way about the nationalist movement. Nevertheless this course of action must be taken, to confront them.
- Write to national and international human rights organisations; tell them about the case and demand action. Their attitude towards politically prosecuted nationalists is well known (see Guenter Deckert, Udo Walendy etc). Even with their previous bias against us they will still comment on this trial?

This is about the future of the Rennicke family and should this trial verdict stand it will set the precedent. Lets not just talk about comradeship and national solidarity, lets put it into action! Every one of us has the means to help in some way. We should all stand beside the Rennicke family in their time of misery and persecution.
